

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

Volume 15, Number 6.

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1915.

Price Two Cents

SECRETARY OF STATE BRYAN OUT

Refuses to Concur in German Note.

WILSON ACCEPTS HIS RESIGNATION

Letter to Germany Is Said to Contain Vigorous Language.

Washington, June 9.—William J. Bryan has resigned as secretary of state and his resignation has been accepted by President Wilson to take effect immediately.

Mr. Bryan retires from the Wilson administration because he is unable conscientiously to sign the note which the president is about to dispatch to Germany. To attach his signature to this communication would, in the opinion of Mr. Bryan, be unfair to the cause nearest his heart—namely, the prevention of war.

At direction of President Wilson, Robert Lansing, acting secretary of state, has signed the note. It has been rushed into the hands of state department experts to be coded and will be on its way to Berlin by the time the American public is reading the startling details of Mr. Bryan's refusal to lend his name to it as secretary of state.

The note, to which Mr. Bryan was unable to subscribe, firmly restates the position of the United States, reiterates President Wilson's previous demands and calls upon Germany for a prompt expression as to whether or not she intends to abide by the principles of the international law and humanity. That it is more vigorous than the president's first note to Germany is evidenced by the fact that Mr. Bryan signed the first, but resigned rather than sign the second.

Several Results May Follow.

Four things stand out impressively among the results which seem certain to come from the remarkable developments:

First—That the country will be divided on the question of President Wilson's policy toward Germany.

Second—That there will be a real awakening in Germany to the determination of the president and the seriousness of the situation confronting them as a result of the United States demand.

Third—That there will probably be a split in the Democratic party, with Mr. Bryan eventually appearing as a leader in opposition to many of President Wilson's policies and probably in opposition to Mr. Wilson's renomination.

Fourth—That there will be a change in the administration's general foreign policy—the substitution of a vigorous assertion of American rights for the temporizing policy of the last two years.

Many officials in Washington also expect to see a clean cut issue between President Wilson and Mr. Bryan on the question of the national defense, with the probable retirement of Joseph Daniels, Mr. Bryan's friend, from the cabinet, as secretary of the navy. Startling as was the mere withdrawal of Mr. Bryan from the administration it was the effect of his action upon the immediate crisis between the United States and Germany over which Washington officials were chiefly concerned.

One Sentence Is Puzzling.

One sentence in Mr. Bryan's letter of resignation to the president was puzzling. This sentence read:

"Obedient to your sense of duty and actuated by the highest motives you have prepared for transmission to the German government a note in which I can not join without violating what I deem to be an obligation to my country and the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of the cabinet would be as unfair to you as it would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war."

By some the sentence was construed as a plain intimation that Secretary Bryan feared that one of the possibilities of the note, which the president has ordered forwarded to Germany, may be war. The other construction was that Secretary Bryan feared that his acquiescence in the president's determination to refuse to discuss the facts of the Lusitania sinking with the Berlin government would be a death blow to the principles for which Mr. Bryan has con-

WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

Resigns Rather Than Approve German Note.

© by American Press Association.

tended and for which he has embodied in thirty peace treaties with foreign governments.

While the correspondence between the president and Mr. Bryan is marked with the utmost cordiality on the president's part, in fact with the manifestation of deep regret and sorrow, there was one sentence in Secretary Bryan's letter which indicates he will not hesitate to use all means at his command to prevent a rupture with Germany. The inference seems to be that Mr. Bryan would throw the weight of his personal power against any such contingency.

Bryan Insisted on Resigning.

On the other hand, President Wilson makes it plain that he has accepted Secretary Bryan's resignation only because Mr. Bryan has insisted and that he expects the co-operation of Mr. Bryan in accomplishing not only this government's present object with Germany, but the other policies of the administration. These are the president's exact words:

"We shall continue to work for the same causes even when we do not work in the same way."

The most serious phase of the Bryan resignation, so far as it affects the German situation, seems to be the possibility of dividing the country in regard to President Wilson's policy. Up to this time the president has enjoyed practically the unanimous support of the country and he has found great encouragement and consolation in this fact. He has acknowledged that the cordial support, which he has received from Americans of all classes, parties and beliefs, has sustained him through the trying days of the last few weeks.

The fear expressed in Washington is that Mr. Bryan's stand will give rise to a difference of opinion in regard to the president's note. Such a division will, of course, not only add to President Wilson's tribulations and embarrassments, but will greatly weaken the strength of this government's representations in Germany.

Advisers Hope for Support.

The president's advisers are hoping, however, that the country will accept the larger view of the situation and demonstrate that it stands as heartily behind the president in his present course as it did when the first note was dispatched.

Many of Mr. Bryan's friends already are busy. Representative Buchanan of Illinois has undertaken to line organized labor up against the possibility of war with Germany and other supporters of Mr. Bryan are at work in other directions.

Of course, if Germany feels that the United States is divided against itself on this issue, the Berlin authorities will be certain to adopt a less conciliatory course.

On the other hand, the retirement of Mr. Bryan is sure to create a profound impression in Berlin. Official reports received here recently have indicated that the Kaiser's advisers were not alive to the seriousness of the controversy with the United States. The retirement of Secretary Bryan will throw a flood of light upon the determination of President Wilson and is bound to have a good effect, unless the feeling against the administration's course immediately asserts itself in this country.

Surgical Tools in Demand.

New York, June 9.—The war has stimulated the export of surgical instruments from the United States to belligerent countries, according to an announcement at the annual convention of the American Surgical Trade association here. J. F. Hartz of Detroit said that heretofore exports of American surgical instruments had been virtually negligible.

A Photograph of Italy's "Big Five" in Conduct of War.

The attention of the world is today focussed on five men the "Big Five" of Italy—Premier Antonio Salandra; General Luigi Cadorna chief of staff of the army; Prince Louis of Savoy, Duke of the Abruzzi, admiral of the battle fleet, Baron Sidney Sonnino, minister of foreign affairs, General Canova, commander of the army.

It would be hard to find five more interesting personalities than those in whom Italy has placed her fate in the war against Austria.

To the Duke of the Abruzzi, well known to the American public because of his romance with Miss Katherine McKim, Italy looks to retrieve the naval disaster on the Adriatic coast at Lissa in 1886.

General Luigi Cadorna head of the Italian land forces, comes of a family of soldiers. One brother, Carlo, was once minister of war and a great advocate of the free church. Another brother is a division general in the army today.

Conte Cadorna was born, Sept. 4, 1850, at Pallanza, Lake Maggiore, in northern Italy. His mother was the Countess Clementina Soppi, a noted beauty of her day. At eighteen the young Conte was a lieutenant and later became colonel of the famous tenth regiment of Bersagliere infantry.

General Luigi Cadorna is noted as a great disciplinarian. He has written many books on military subjects. He wrote particularly of the Franco-Prussian war of 1870.

Signor Antonio Salandra, premier of Italy, is not an aristocrat by birth. He was trained for the law and has spent thirty years as an active participant in parliamentary affairs. He was the leader of his party in the chamber of deputies for many years and once served as minister of finance. He was called to the premiership in March 1914, on the resignation of the Giolitti cabinet.

Salandra is a great orator and a great leader. After his ascension to the premiership he was confronted with many trying internal problems. He manoeuvred so cleverly as to suppress the rising of Socialists, and at the same time gain their support. He settled the big railroad strike.

GENERAL CANOVA, RANKING CHIEF OF STAFF.

BARON SIDNEY SONNINO, FOREIGN MINISTER.

PREMIER SALANDRA.

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI, RANKING ADMIRAL OF THE NAVY.

LIEUT. GEN. CADORNA.

CHIEF OF STAFF.

GENERAL CANOVA, RANKING CHIEF OF STAFF.

BARON SIDNEY SONNINO, FOREIGN MINISTER.

PREMIER SALANDRA.

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI, RANKING ADMIRAL OF THE NAVY.

LIEUT. GEN. CADORNA.

CHIEF OF STAFF.

GENERAL CANOVA, RANKING CHIEF OF STAFF.

BARON SIDNEY SONNINO, FOREIGN MINISTER.

PREMIER SALANDRA.

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI, RANKING ADMIRAL OF THE NAVY.

LIEUT. GEN. CADORNA.

CHIEF OF STAFF.

GENERAL CANOVA, RANKING CHIEF OF STAFF.

BARON SIDNEY SONNINO, FOREIGN MINISTER.

PREMIER SALANDRA.

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI, RANKING ADMIRAL OF THE NAVY.

LIEUT. GEN. CADORNA.

CHIEF OF STAFF.

GENERAL CANOVA, RANKING CHIEF OF STAFF.

BARON SIDNEY SONNINO, FOREIGN MINISTER.

PREMIER SALANDRA.

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI, RANKING ADMIRAL OF THE NAVY.

LIEUT. GEN. CADORNA.

CHIEF OF STAFF.

GENERAL CANOVA, RANKING CHIEF OF STAFF.

BARON SIDNEY SONNINO, FOREIGN MINISTER.

PREMIER SALANDRA.

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI, RANKING ADMIRAL OF THE NAVY.

LIEUT. GEN. CADORNA.

CHIEF OF STAFF.

GENERAL CANOVA, RANKING CHIEF OF STAFF.

BARON SIDNEY SONNINO, FOREIGN MINISTER.

PREMIER SALANDRA.

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI, RANKING ADMIRAL OF THE NAVY.

LIEUT. GEN. CADORNA.

CHIEF OF STAFF.

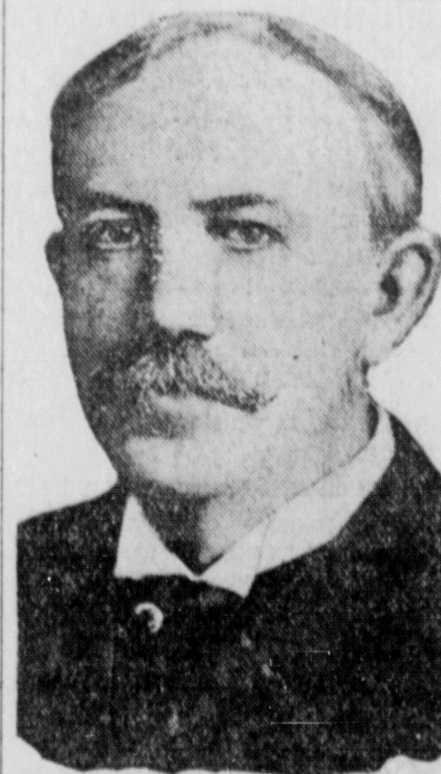

GENERAL CANOVA, RANKING CHIEF OF STAFF.

BARON SIDNEY SONNINO, FOREIGN MINISTER.

PREMIER SALANDRA.

DAVID STARR JORDAN.

Believes Great War Will End in Draw.

FAVORS SHIPMENT OF ARMS

David Starr Jordan Comments on Present European War.

Minneapolis, June 9.—David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford university and world famous peace advocate, believes that the United States should keep right on exporting arms and ammunition to Europe. He is against the propaganda now being worked up to prohibit such exportation. His attitude is not inconsistent, he said, but on the contrary is highly consistent.

"One cannot change international law while the war is going on," he said. "It would put us in the attitude of allying ourselves with Germany as against England and in fact would be a violation of neutrality on our part."

Of the great war and its outcome Dr. Jordan, basing his expectation on intimate knowledge of the causes that preceded the war and personal experience by travel in eighteen European countries preceding the beginning of hostilities, made these predictions:

The war will be a draw. Germany cannot defeat the allies and dictate peace.

The allies cannot crush Germany. Peace should be followed by the re-writing of international law in unmistakable terms.

The United States will keep out of the trouble.

Democratic control, in Germany, the ruling of that country by the people and not by a military oligarchy should follow.

FIRST CASES IN MINNESOTA

Two St. Paul Men Fined for Evading Income Tax Law.

St. Paul, June 9.—Judge Page Morris in federal court fined S. T. Sorenson, proprietor of retail shoe stores in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth, $500 for failure to make return under the federal income tax law. Attorneys for Mr. Sorenson pleaded that he was not familiar with the law. The fine was paid. According to the contention of the federal authorities Mr. Sorenson in 1914 had a gross income of $118,000 and a net income of $33,000.

Sol Sinykin, liquor dealer of St. Paul, who was arrested on a similar charge, was fined $100, which was paid. These are the first cases of this kind brought in Minnesota, but J. M. Dickey, United States district attorney, said that others are pending.

DERNBURG SAILS SATURDAY

Spokesman for Kaiser Engages Passage for Wife and Self.

New York, June 9.—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg has engaged passage on the steamship Bergensfjord of the Norwegian line, according to an announcement made at the office of the company.

The ship sails from here on Saturday for Norwegian ports. Passage also was engaged for Mrs. Dernburg.

FIFTY PERSONS HURT IN RAILWAY WRECK.

Wichita, Kan., June 9.—A St. Louis and San Francisco passenger train was wrecked nineteen miles west of Enid, Okla., and fifty persons were injured, eight fatally, so a telephone message states.

The train rolled down a twenty-five-foot embankment just after it had crossed a high bridge.

MR. BRYAN'S IDEAS

(By United Press)

Washington, June 9.—To keep America from war by removing the causes of international irritation, that was Bryan's suggestion to President Wilson, following the drowning of Thrasher on the Falaba. The methods proposed were not agreed to by the President, hence Bryan's sensational retirement. The suggestions Bryan made are now published for the first time:

First—He suggested that Germany, in as much as she accepted the principle of arbitration of all questions in dispute, that Germany name a commission to determine the responsibility.

Second—Since warned, that Americans be not allowed to take passage on foreign merchantmen or merchantmen carrying munitions.

Third—That the U. S. prohibit the carrying of munitions on passenger vessels.

He called attention to the President's warning to American citizens to leave Mexico on account of the warning. Bryan says he will lend himself for furthering peace moves.

TURKS SINK TRANSPORT

(By United Press)

Constantinople, June 9.—An enemy's transport was shelled and sunk, and another transport was forced to leave its anchorage by Turkish forts at the Dardanelles. The transport is believed to be English. Her deck was hit by a shell which fired the ship, and then another shell sunk it. On account of the smoke the fate of the crew is unknown.

GREEK KING IMPROVES

Athens, June 9.—King Constantine's condition shows a marked improvement.

LATEST WAR NEWS

ADVISES AMERICANS TO STAY

(By United Press)

Berlin, June 9.—American business men are receiving orders from America to discontinue purchases and to conserve funds pending the outcome of the Lusitania negotiations. George Atwood scouted the idea of a serious break. Atwood is secretary of the American Chamber of Commerce, and is advising Americans to stay as he believes a settlement is possible. An American corset firm is leaving on account of being unable to get more corsets. The National Cash Register, The International Harvester Co., The American Radiator Co., are remaining. They have hundreds of thousands of dollars invested. Ambassador Gerard is preparing a big scrap book containing the clippings of American newspapers to acquaint the German government with American sentiment on the Lusitania incident. The scrap book will contain editorial comment and cartoons. It is believed that Ambassador Gerard will deliver the scrap book to the German foreign office in person.

GERMAN STEAMER TORPEDOED

(By United Press)

Petrograd, June 9.—A Russian submarine sank the German steamer Hinderberg. The submarine attacked a fleet of ten German ships in the Baltic says a semi-official announcement this afternoon. A first class German cruiser struck a mine in the Gulf of Riga and was badly damaged.

NO COALITION CABINET

(By United Press)

Washington, June 9.—It is emphatically denied that there is any thought of a coalition cabinet, as it is unnecessary, as there is plenty of good democratic material for all positions. Commenting on the possibility of Richard Olney as secretary, attention is called to the fact that Mr. Olney refused two positions because of his age.

FRENCH CONTINUE TO ADVANCE

(To be Continued)

Paris, June 9.—The French swept forward a hundred yards along a three hundred yard front in their new offensive against the German wedge resting at St. Michel.

GERMAN NOTE SENT AT 2:30

(By United Press)

Washington, June 9.—The transmission of the German note started at two this afternoon. It contained twenty-two hundred words. Acting Secretary Lansing signed it instead of Bryan.

GERMANS CAPTURE STANISLAU

(By United Press)

Berlin, June 9.—Austro-Germans have captured Stanislaw near the Baltic. Austro-Germans have occupied Kubli on the Windau river.

TEUTON ARMIES NEAR LEMBERG

Are Now Forty-five Miles North-east of Przemyśl.

REPULSE FRENCH ATTACKS

Army Headquarters at Berlin Says Assault by the Enemy on the Southern Slope of Lorette Hills Ended in Complete Failure.

Berlin, June 9.—General von Linsingen, in his advance from Przemyśl in the direction of Lemberg, has reached Lubaczow, forty-five miles northeast of Przemyśl.

This information was contained in the official report given out at German army headquarters. The report follows:

"An attack by the enemy on the southern slope of Lorette hills failed completely. The French refrained from making further attempt to attack. South of Neuville an attack by the enemy was prevented by our artillery fire.

"In the region southeast of Hebuterne the battle continues. An attack northwest of Soissons, at Moulin-Sous-Toutvent, has been brought to a standstill by our counter attack. At Villavau-Ver, northwest of Berry-au-Bac, the enemy suffered heavy losses in an unsuccessful attempt to recapture the position lost in May. A flying machine of the enemy was shot down.

"Our offensive movement in the Shavi district and east of the Dubysa is taking its course. Southwest of Ploedek an enemy aeroplane was captured.

"East of Przemyśl the general situation is the same. The number of prisoners taken by the army under General von Mackensen since June 1 amounts to more than 20,000. In the hills near Nowoszyn, northeast of Zural, the troops under General Linsingen again defeated the enemy. The pursuit reached the line of Lubaczow.

LANSING MAY GET PLACE

Several Men Mentioned as Successor to W. J. Bryan.

Washington, June 9.—Robert Lansing, counselor of the state department, Secretary of War Garrison and Secretary of the Interior Lane are the men most discussed in Washington as the ones from whom President Wilson will select a successor to Secretary of State Bryan.

There is no intimation that the president has made a choice as yet. Sources close to the White House intimate that Mr. Lansing, by reason of his experience in the department and intimate knowledge of the administration's foreign policies, is the probable selection.

However, both Secretary Garrison and Secretary Lane enjoy in the highest degree the president's confidence.

BRYAN'S ACT STIRS TEUTONS AT CAPITAL

Washington, June 9.—In Austro-German quarters, where there has been some confidence that Secretary Bryan's influence for peace would make impossible a rupture between the United States and Germany, the resignation of the secretary caused much uneasiness.

In other official and diplomatic quarters the view was held that by accepting the resignation of Mr. Bryan the president had demonstrated to Germany his earnest intention of obtaining reparation for the loss of American lives on the Lusitania and a guarantee against other violations of American rights.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, called on Counselor Lansing to inform him that, although the embassy quarters had been removed to Cedarhurst, L. I., he would remain here indefinitely to await a copy of the American note.

REMOVE UNIVERSITY HEAD

President Accused of Threatening to Dismiss Faculty Members.

Helena, Mont., June 9.—By a vote of 8 to 4 the state board of education refused to renew the contract of Dr. C. B. Craighead as president of Montana state university. Dr. Craighead had been called to answer charges that he had threatened members of the faculty with dismissal unless they wrote letters to the board endorsing his work. His accuser was J. H. T. Lyman, member of the university board of control.

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

Volume 15, Number 6.

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1915.

Price Two Cents

SECRETARY OF STATE BRYAN OUT

Refuses to Concur in German Note.

WILSON ACCEPTS HIS RESIGNATION

Letter to Germany Is Said to Contain Vigorous Language.

Washington, June 9.—William J. Bryan has resigned as secretary of state and his resignation has been accepted by President Wilson to take effect immediately.

Mr. Bryan retires from the Wilson administration because he is unable conscientiously to sign the note which the president is about to dispatch to Germany. To attach his signature to this communication would, in the opinion of Mr. Bryan, be unfair to the cause nearest his heart—namely, the prevention of war.

At direction of President Wilson, Robert Lansing, acting secretary of state, has signed the note. It has been rushed into the hands of state department experts to be coded and will be on its way to Berlin by the time the American public is reading the startling details of Mr. Bryan's refusal to lend his name to it as secretary of state.

The note, to which Mr. Bryan was unable to subscribe, firmly restates the position of the United States, reiterates President Wilson's previous demands and calls upon Germany for a prompt expression as to whether or not she intends to abide by the principles of the international law and humanity. That it is more vigorous than the president's first note to Germany is evidenced by the fact that Mr. Bryan signed the first, but resigned rather than sign the second.

Several Results May Follow.

Four things stand out impressively among the results which seem certain to come from the remarkable developments:

First—That the country will be divided on the question of President Wilson's policy toward Germany.

Second—That there will be a real awakening in Germany to the determination of the president and the seriousness of the situation confronting them as a result of the United States demand.

Third—That there will probably be a split in the Democratic party, with Mr. Bryan eventually appearing as a leader in opposition to many of President Wilson's policies and probably in opposition to Mr. Wilson's renomination.

Fourth—That there will be a change in the administration's general foreign policy—the substitution of a vigorous assertion of American rights for the temporizing policy of the last two years.

Many officials in Washington also expect to see a clean cut issue between President Wilson and Mr. Bryan on the question of the national defenses, with the probable retirement of Josephus Daniels, Mr. Bryan's friend, from the cabinet, as secretary of the navy. Startling as was the mere withdrawal of Mr. Bryan from the administration it was the effect of his action upon the immediate crisis between the United States and Germany over which Washington officials were chiefly concerned.

One Sentence Is Puzzling.

One sentence in Mr. Bryan's letter of resignation to the president was puzzling. This sentence read:

"Obedient to your sense of duty and actuated by the highest motives you have prepared for transmission to the German government a note in which I can not join without violating what I deem to be an obligation to my country and the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of the cabinet would be as unfair to you as it would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war."

By some the sentence was construed as a plain intimation that Secretary Bryan feared that one of the possibilities of the note, which the president has ordered forwarded to Germany, may be war. The other construction was that Secretary Bryan feared that his acquiescence in the president's determination to refuse to discuss the facts of the Lusitania sinking with the Berlin government would be a death blow to the principles for which Mr. Bryan has con-

WILLIAM J. BRYAN.

Resigns Rather Than Approve German Note.

By American Press Association.

tended and for which he has embodied in thirty peace treaties with foreign governments.

While the correspondence between the president and Mr. Bryan is marked with the utmost cordiality on the president's part, in fact with the manifestation of deep regret and sorrow, there was one sentence in Secretary Bryan's letter which indicates he will not hesitate to use all means at his command to prevent a rupture with Germany. The inference seems to be that Mr. Bryan would throw the weight of his personal power against any such contingency.

Bryan Insisted on Resigning.

On the other hand, President Wilson makes it plain that he has accepted Secretary Bryan's resignation only because Mr. Bryan has insisted and that he expects the co-operation of Mr. Bryan in accomplishing not only this government's present object with Germany, but the other policies of the administration. These are the president's exact words:

"We shall continue to work for the same causes even when we do not work in the same way."

The most serious phase of the Bryan resignation, so far as it affects the German situation, seems to be the possibility of dividing the country in regard to President Wilson's policy. Up to this time the president has enjoyed practically the unanimous support of the country and he has found great encouragement and consolation in this fact. He has acknowledged that the cordial support, which he has received from Americans of all classes, parties and beliefs, has sustained him through the trying days of the last few weeks.

The fear expressed in Washington is that Mr. Bryan's stand will give rise to a difference of opinion in regard to the president's note. Such a division will, of course, not only add to President Wilson's tribulations and embarrassments, but will greatly weaken the strength of this government's representations in Germany.

Advisers Hope for Support.

The president's advisers are hoping, however, that the country will accept the larger view of the situation and demonstrate that it stands as heartily behind the president in his present course as it did when the first note was dispatched.

Many of Mr. Bryan's friends already are busy. Representative Buchanan of Illinois has undertaken to line organized labor up against the possibility of war with Germany and other supporters of Mr. Bryan are at work in other directions.

Of course, if Germany feels that the United States is divided against itself on this issue, the Berlin authorities will be certain to adopt a less conciliatory course.

On the other hand, the retirement of Mr. Bryan is sure to create a profound impression in Berlin. Official reports received here recently have indicated that the Kaiser's advisers were not alive to the seriousness of the controversy with the United States. The retirement of Secretary Bryan will throw a flood of light upon the determination of President Wilson and is bound to have a good effect, unless the feeling against the administration's course immediately asserts itself in this country.

Surgical Tools in Demand.

New York, June 9.—The war has stimulated the export of surgical instruments from the United States to belligerent countries, according to an announcement at the annual convention of the American Surgical Trade Association here. J. F. Hartz of Detroit said that heretofore exports of American surgical instruments had been virtually negligible.

A Photograph of Italy's "Big Five" in Conduct of War.

The attention of the world is today focussed on five men the "Big Five" of Italy—Premier Antonio Salandra; General Luigi Cadorna, chief of staff of the army; Prince Louis of Savoy, Duke of the Abruzzi, admiral of the battle fleet, Baron Sidney Sonnino, minister of foreign affairs, General Canova, commander of the army.

It would be hard to find five more interesting personalities than these in whom Italy has placed her fate in the war against Austria.

To the Duke of the Abruzzi, well known to the American public because of his romance with Miss Katherine Wilkins, Italy looks to retrieve the naval disaster on the Adriatic coast at Lissa in 1886.

General Luigi Cadorna head of the Italian land forces, comes of a family of soldiers. One brother, Carlo, was once minister of war and a great advocate of the free church. Another brother is a division general in the army today.

Conte Cadorna was born, Sept. 4, 1850, at Pallanza, Lake Maggiore, in northern Italy. His mother was the Countess Clementina Soppi, a noted beauty of her day. At eighteen the young Conte was a lieutenant and later became colonel of the famous 50th regiment of Bersaglieri infantry.

General Luigi Cadorna is noted as a great disciplinarian. He has written many books on military subjects. He wrote particularly of the Franco-Prussian war of 1870.

Signor Antonio Salandra, premier of Italy, is not an aristocrat by birth. He was trained for the law and has spent thirty years as an active participant in parliamentary affairs. He was the leader of his party in the chamber of deputies for many years and once served as minister of finance. He was called to the premiership in March 1914, on the resignation of the Giolitti cabinet.

Salandra is a great orator and a great leader. After his ascension to the premiership he was confronted with many trying internal problems. He manoeuvred so cleverly as to suppress the rising of Socialists, and at the same time gain their support. He settled the big railroad strike.

Baron Sidney Sonnino the foreign secretary, was once premier and Salandra was one of his most ardent supporters. Sonnino is a Jew by race, a Protestant by faith and a native of Egypt. Born on the banks of the Nile of an English mother, he received the greater part of his education in Great Britain. Baron Sonnino's paternal grandfather migrated from the ghetto of Leghorn, Italy, to Egypt, where he built up an enormous fortune as a banker.

The army will be under the direct command of General Canova who led the Italian forces in the conquest of Tripoli. General Canova is the only living "generale dell'esercito," a title which is granted only in time of actual war. He won the honor by his Tripoli campaign.

LATEST WAR NEWS

ADVISES AMERICANS TO STAY

(By United Press)

Berlin, June 9.—American business men are receiving orders from America to discontinue purchases and to conserve funds pending the outcome of the Lusitania negotiations. George Atwood, secretary of the American Chamber of Commerce, is advising Americans to stay as he believes a settlement is possible. An American corset firm is leaving on account of being unable to get more corsets. The National Cash Register, The International Harvester Co., The American Radiator Co., are remaining. They have hundreds of thousands of dollars invested. Ambassador Gerard is preparing a big scrap book containing the clippings of American newspapers to acquaint the German government with American sentiment on the Lusitania incident. The scrap book will contain editorial comment and cartoons. It is believed that Ambassador Gerard will deliver the scrap book to the German foreign office in person.

GERMAN NOTE SENT AT 2:30

(By United Press)

Washington, June 9.—The transmission of the German note started at two this afternoon. It contained twenty-two hundred words. Acting Secretary Lansing signed it instead of Bryan.

GERMANS CAPTURE STANISLAU

(By United Press)

Berlin, June 9.—Austro-Germans have captured Stanislaw near the Baltic. Austro-Germans have occupied Kubli on the Windau river.

GERMAN NOTE DISPATCHED

(By United Press)

Washington, June 9.—Councillor Lansing at 10 o'clock this morning said the German note would be coded and dispatched before night. John Bassett Moore called at the state department this morning. Moore resigned as councillor on account of differences with Bryan, and it is rumored that he will be appointed as acting councillor under Lansing.

GERMAN STEAMER TORPEDOED

(By United Press)

Petrograd, June 9.—A Russian submarine sank the German steamer Hinderberg. The submarines attacked a fleet of ten German ships in the Baltic says a semi-official announcement this afternoon. A first class German cruiser struck a mine in the Gulf of Riga and was badly damaged.

NO COALITION CABINET

(By United Press)

Washington, June 9.—It is emphatically denied that there is any thought of a coalition cabinet, as it is unnecessary, as there is plenty of good democratic material for all positions. Commenting on the possibility of Richard Olney as secretary, attention is called to the fact that Mr. Olney refused two positions because of his age.

FRENCH CONTINUE TO ADVANCE

(To be Continued)

Paris, June 9.—The French swept forward a hundred yards along a three hundred yard front in their new offensive against the German wedge resting at St. Michel.

MR. BRYAN'S IDEAS

(By United Press)

Washington, June 9.—To keep America from war by removing the causes of international irritation, that was Bryan's suggestion to President Wilson, following the drowning of Thrasher on the Falaba. The methods proposed were not agreed to by the President, hence Bryan's sensational retirement. The suggestions Bryan made are now published for the first time: First—He suggested that Germany, in as much as she accepted the principle of arbitration of all questions in dispute, that Germany name a commission to determine the responsibility.

Second—Since warned, that Americans be not allowed to take passage on foreign merchantmen or merchantmen carrying munitions.

Third—That the U. S. prohibit the carrying of munitions on passenger vessels.

He called attention to the President's warning to American citizens to leave Mexico on account of the warning. Bryan says he will lend himself for furthering peace moves.

TURKS SINK TRANSPORT

(By United Press)

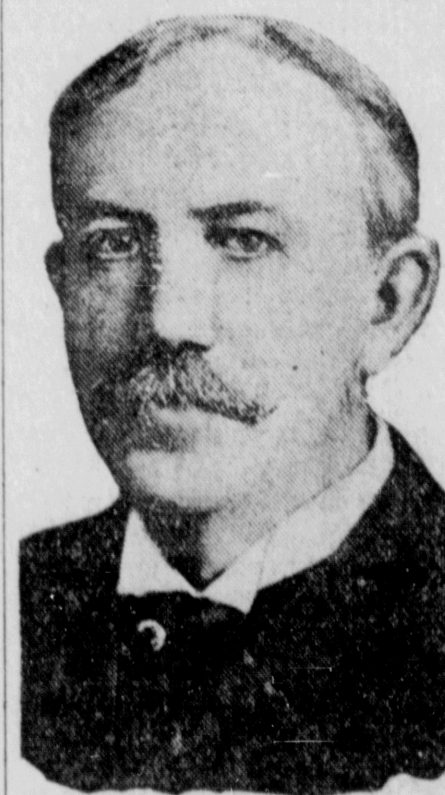

Constantinople, June 9.—An enemy's transport was shelled and sunk, and another transport was forced to leave its anchorage by Turkish forts at the Dardanelles. The transport is believed to be English. Her deck was hit by a shell which fired the ship, and then another shell sunk it. On account of the smoke the fate of the crew is unknown.

GREEK KING IMPROVES

Athens, June 9.—King Constantine's condition shows a marked improvement.

DAVID STARR JORDAN.

Believes Great War Will End in Draw.

FAVORS SHIPMENT OF ARMS

David Starr Jordan Comments on Present European War.

Minneapolis, June 9.—David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford university and world famous peace advocate, believes that the United States should keep right on exporting arms and ammunition to Europe. He is against the propaganda now being worked up to prohibit such exportation. His attitude is not inconsistent, he said, but on the contrary is highly consistent.

"One cannot change international law while the war is going on," he said. "It would put us in the attitude of allying ourselves with Germany as against England and in fact would be a violation of neutrality on our part."

Of the great war and its outcome Dr. Jordan, basing his expectation on intimate knowledge of the causes that preceded the war and personal experience by travel in eighteen European countries preceding the beginning of hostilities, made these predictions:

The war will be a draw. Germany cannot defeat the allies and dictate peace.

The allies cannot crush Germany. Peace should be followed by the rewriting of international law in unmistakable terms.

The United States will keep out of the trouble.

Democratic control, in Germany, the ruling of that country by the people and not by a military oligarchy should follow.

FIRST CASES IN MINNESOTA

Two St. Paul Men Fined for Evading Income Tax Law.

St. Paul, June 9.—Judge Page Morris in federal court fined S. T. Sorenson, proprietor of retail shoe stores in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Duluth, $500 for failure to make return under the federal income tax law. Attorneys for Mr. Sorenson pleaded that he was not familiar with the law. The fine was paid. According to the contention of the federal authorities Mr. Sorenson in 1914 had a gross income of $118,000 and a net income of $23,000.

Sol Sinykin, liquor dealer of St. Paul, who was arrested on a similar charge, was fined $100, which was paid. These are the first cases of this kind brought in Minnesota, but J. M. Dickey, United States district attorney, said that others are pending.

DERNBURG SAILS SATURDAY

Spokesman for Kaiser Engages Passage for Wife and Self.

New York, June 9.—Dr. Bernhard Dernburg has engaged passage on the steamship Bergenstorf of the Norwegian line, according to an announcement made at the offices of the company.

The ship sails from here on Saturday for Norwegian ports. Passage also was engaged for Mrs. Dernburg.

FIFTY PERSONS HURT IN RAILWAY WRECK.

Wichita, Kan., June 9.—A St. Louis and San Francisco passenger train was wrecked nineteen miles west of Enid, Okla., and fifty persons were injured, eight fatally, so a telephone message states.

The train rolled down a twenty-five-foot embankment just after it had crossed a high bridge.

TEUTON ARMIES NEAR LEMBERG

Are Now Forty-five Miles North-east of Przemyśl.

REPULSE FRENCH ATTACKS

Army Headquarters at Berlin Says Assault by the Enemy on the Southern Slope of Lorette Hills Ended in Complete Failure.

Berlin, June 9.—General von Linsingen, in his advance from Przemyśl in the direction of Lemberg, has reached Labaczow, forty-five miles northeast of Przemyśl.

This information was contained in the official report given out at German army headquarters. The report follows:

"An attack by the enemy on the southern slope of Lorette hills failed completely. The French refrained from making further attempt to attack. South of Neuville an attack by the enemy was prevented by our artillery fire.

"In the region southeast of Hebuterne the battle continues. An attack northwest of Soissons, at Moulin-Sous-Toutvent, has been brought to a standstill by our counter attack. At Villav-Vols, northwest of Berry-au-Bac, the enemy suffered heavy losses in an unsuccessful attempt to recapture the position lost in May. A flying machine of the enemy was shot down.

"Our offensive movement in the Shavi district and east of the Dubysa is taking its course. Southwest of Ploceek an enemy aeroplane was captured.

"East of Przemyśl the general situation is the same. The number of prisoners taken by the army under General von Mackensen since June 1 amounts to more than 20,000. In the hills near Nowosyn, northeast of Zuzali, the troops under General Linsingen again defeated the enemy. The pursuit reached the line of Labaczow.

LANSING MAY GET PLACE

Several Men Mentioned as Successor to W. J. Bryan.

Washington, June 9.—Robert Lansing, councillor of the state department, Secretary of War Garrison and Secretary of the Interior Lane are the men most discussed in Washington as the ones from whom President Wilson will select a successor to Secretary of State Bryan.

There is no intimation that the president has made a choice as yet. Sources close to the White House intimate that Mr. Lansing, by reason of his experience in the department and intimate knowledge of the administration's foreign policies, is the probable selection.

However, both Secretary Garrison and Secretary Lane enjoy in the highest degree the president's confidence.

BRYAN'S ACT STIRS TEUTONS AT CAPITAL

Washington, June 9.—In Austro-German quarters, where there has been some confidence that Secretary Bryan's influence for peace would make impossible a rupture between the United States and Germany, the resignation of the secretary caused much uneasiness.

In other official and diplomatic quarters the view was held that by accepting the resignation of Mr. Bryan the president had demonstrated to Germany his earnest intention of obtaining reparation for the loss of American lives on the Lusitania and a guarantee against other violations of American rights.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, called on Counselor Lansing to inform him that, although the embassy quarters had been removed to Cedarhurst, L. I., he would remain here indefinitely to await a copy of the American note.

REMOVE UNIVERSITY HEAD

President Accused of Threatening to Dismiss Faculty Members.

Helena, Mont., June 9.—By a vote of 8 to 4 the state board of education refused to renew the contract of Dr. C. B. Craighead as president of Montana state university. Dr. Craighead had been called to answer charges but he had threatened members of the faculty with dismissal unless they wrote letters to the board endorsing his work. His accuser was J. H. C. Lyman, member of the university board of control.

A. F. GROVES, M. D.
Practice Limited to
Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat
GLASSES FITTED CORRECTLY
Office Iron Exchange Building

H. G. INGERSOLL, D. D. S.
DENTIST

Room 204 Iron Exchange Bldg.
Brainerd, Minn.

T. C. BLEWITT
LAWYER

Practice in all Courts
Established 1899

COLLECTIONS AND INSURANCE
DEPARTMENTS

217-218 Iron Exchange Bldg.
Brainerd, Minnesota

Mason Work — Bricklaying
Plastering, Cement Work
CHARLES PETERSON
623 Pine St. So., Brainerd, Minn.
Phone 271-W

Thompson Bros.
& Clausen

Manufacturers of
Cement Blocks, Brick, Tile, Chimney
Blocks and Reinforced Well Curbing.
Will put in foundations, Sidewalks
and all kinds of Cement Work.

107 West Front St., Brainerd.

FISHING TACKLE

SEE THE PRICE ON OUR GOODS

They all go and look and then come
and buy the Shakespeare tackle, because when you catch a fish you know that he won't get away. Its honor
built and fully guaranteed

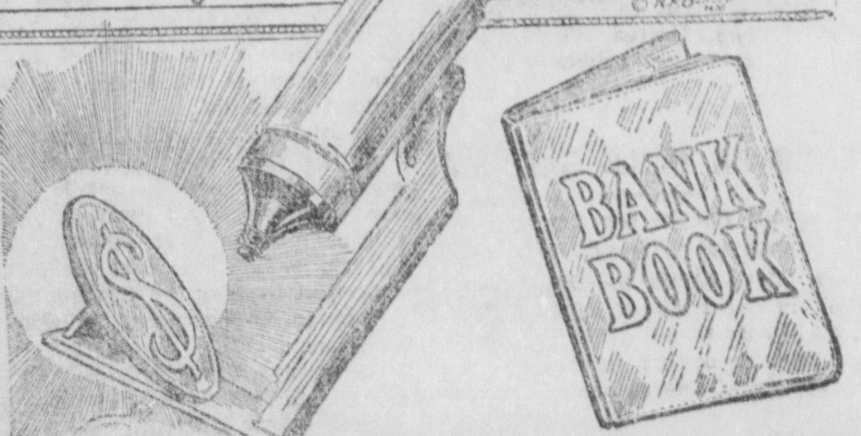

ROW BOAT MOTORS

In the market for a Row Boat Motor?
Come and see the KOBAN two cylinder. The best recommendation that we can give is to have you ask the
men who own them.

Ransford Billiard Hall
Coffrain & Hess, Props.

RELIABLE FAMILY MEDICINES
at one-third price of advertised
preparations. Write for catalogue.
HOME REMEDY CO.
BUFFALO, N. Y.

Every dollar that
the Careful Man
Banks in his youth
will increase a hundred fold to him in his old age

HERE'S A FACT: THE MONEY YOU SPEND NOW IS
MANY TIMES THAT MONEY, BECAUSE IT IS CHEATING
YOURSELF OUT OF THE PROFIT THAT MONEY WOULD EARN
FOR YOU SOME DAY.

IN OTHER WORDS, YOU ARE THROWING AWAY THE
"FOUNDATION" ON WHICH YOU COULD BUILD A FORTUNE.
YOU ARE CASTING AWAY THE SEED WHICH WOULD BE-COME A TREE IF PLANTED.

BANK WITH US.

WE PAY INTEREST ON TIME AND SAVINGS DEPOSITS.

First National Bank

Brainerd, - - Minn.
Established 1881
Capital and Surplus

One Hundred Thousand Dollars

THE WEATHER

Weather Forecast for Next 24 Hours.
Generally fair today.
June 8—Maximum 62, minimum
42. Rainfall 41 hundredths inches.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Plumbing and heating, estimates
given. 719 Laurel—Advt. 415p
L. G. Foley, of St. Paul, was in the city today.

Miss Dorothy Hele went to St. Paul
this afternoon.

For Spring Water Phone 264. 41
Miss Mary Headman went to Minneapolis this afternoon.

Miss Anna Hansen, of Ironton, is visiting Miss Clara DeRoche.

Mrs. Richard Ahrens and son went to Minneapolis this afternoon.
William Kontos returned this noon
from a business trip to Hibbing.

Mrs. C. C. Chase of Prairie du
Chien, Wis., is visiting at the home
of her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Ryan.

Nettleton sells homes on easy terms
—Advt. 51f

Mrs. G. W. Mosier went to St.
Cloud this afternoon to witness the graduation of her daughter, Miss Jean Mosier.

Morris D. Folsom, Teacher of Piano, 311 North Fourth St. Phone
102-J.—Advt. 30816

C. A. Woolsey, of the Northern Express Co., St. Paul, was in Brainerd today. He is a traveling agent of the company.

Phone 359L for DRY millwood.—
Advt. 1781f

In the month of April the consumption of current increased so in Brainerd as to reduce the cost to the city to 2c a kilowatt.

Regular Meeting
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
WEDNESDAY 9th
8 p. m.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and
Mrs. Fred Fleischacker of Daggett
Brook on Monday. Mother and child
are doing nicely.

Plumbing and heating, estimates
given. 719 Laurel—Advt. 415p

Evangelist Clarence J. Martin will conduct the Bible and prayer service at the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening.

We fit the new "Elastic Eyeglass."
Dr. E. E. Long, Osteopath. 2911f

(W. M. Jenkins, of the Eagle Lake
Realty Co., went to Peoria, Ill., this afternoon and will return with a large party of land buyers.

Lawn grass seed, clover, timothy
and blue grass, at D. M. Clark & Co.

Rev. Alex B. Colvin will speak in English at the Swedish Baptist church next Sunday evening. The whole service will be in English.

District court resumed this morning with Judge B. F. Wright on the bench. The case of Lane vs the Brainerd Sash & Door Co. is on trial.

Ask

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson went to
St. Cloud this afternoon to attend the graduation exercises, their daughter,
Miss Grace Carlson, being a graduate.
Any one desiring to secure Lycosite
Fluid can do so by calling at 601
Sixth street south. 1381f

Mrs. W. S. McClenahan has gone to
St. Cloud to attend the graduation exercises, her sister, Miss Marjorie Poppenberg, being one of the graduates.

Your

Mrs. S. R. Adair went to St. Cloud
this afternoon to attend the graduation exercises at the normal, her daughter, Miss Marie Adair, being a graduate.

Lawn mowers from $3 to $14 at
D. M. Clark & Co's. —2651f

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Clarkson have gone to Winona where Mr. Clarkson will attend the state United Commercial Travelers convention as a delegate from Brainerd council.

Grocer

Farm loans for farmers, three or five years time at 6 per cent. Security National Loan Company, Brainerd, Minn. 295-1f

Lots, buy now, pay later, Nettleton.
61f

Warmer weather today gives assurances that the carnival will be more largely attended. Many auto parties from the range towns will soon arrive to visit the attractions.

For

Every style and kind of underwear
at whatever price you want to pay.
That's the assortment you have to choose from when you go to B. Kaatz
& Son.—Advt. 11f

Ice cream at Turners'. Phone
267-J. 2551f

The M. & I. special train service
Sunday morning and evening has been dubbed the "Jitney." The iron range special long ago was called
"The Merrow Widow" and that name stuck.

A

The ladies have the opportunity of taking the Sulphur Vapor baths at
the special price of $1.00 each until July 10th. Call or phone for dates.
Phone 629. References furnished. 614

John Klow has leased the Woodrow billiard hall from Frank Cannon
and will take charge on June 10. Mr.
Klow is from Barrows and had a boarding house and hotel there. He will put in a dining room and kitchen
at the new place of business. The grand opening will occur on June 16.
There will be good music and a lunch.

GOLD BAR

O. B. Hamlin and assistants are erecting the playground apparatus on the South side school grounds, northeast corner of Sixth and Oak. As fast as one article is constructed the children immediately put the same to use. This morning 59 children of all ages kept the "teeter totters" bounding in the air and a steady stream shot down the slide. This afternoon the swings will be in shape for occupancy. As the vacation season is at hand there is every indication that the parks playground
apparatus will be used to its full capacity. It will make a stronger, sturdier and more healthful Brainerd, for kid time is play time and no child can properly develop unless it has the room and opportunity to play
Those are inalienable privileges of a happy childhood.

Button

Glasses properly fitted. Dr. Long.
2911f

Started Early.

"I'm not surprised to hear that Grab-
son is a rich man."

"I understand you knew him when
he was a small boy."

"Yes, and at a time when the rest of us wanted to go out west and hunt
real live Indians the only kind of red men he cared about were those on pennies."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Today

Girl of the Period.

"Well, is your bride a good housekeeper?"

"She hasn't had much experience along those lines, I must admit. She thinks anybody ought to be satisfied with an ice cream soda for breakfast."
—Kansas City Journal.

Slight not what's near through aiming at what's far.—Euripides.

BLOOD RINGS ON EGGS

Fertile Eggs Great Source of Loss—
Keep Male Bird Out of Flock
After Hatching Season

It is conservatively estimated that there is an annual loss in eggs in this country of $45,000,000. Practically all of this enormous loss is sustained
by the farmers of this country, as it is on the general farms that the great bunks of eggs is produced, says the weekly News-Letter. A very great part of this loss can be prevented by the production of infertile eggs,
which are laid by hens that do not have a male bird with them. The male bird has no influence whatever on the number of eggs laid. Therefore, as soon as the hatching season
is over the male should be removed from the flock.

The greatest trouble from blood
Zeings in eggs occurs in hot weather.
Special care should be given to the gathering and storing of the eggs during the late spring and summer months. At these times the eggs should be gathered at least twice a day, placed in a room or cellar where
the temperature does not rise above 70 degree F., and marketed two or three times a week.

Blood rings are caused by the development of the embryo of a fertile egg
and its subsequent death. It is impossible to hatch an infertile egg or cause a blood ring to form in one.
It is generally considered that eggs
become infertile from 7 to 14 days after the male bird is removed from the flock. Repeated experiments have shown that where fertile and infertile eggs are kept under similar conditions, the fertile eggs spoiled much quicker, due to the fact that they deteriorate faster than infertile
eggs in the average summer temperature. Summer heat has the same effect as the hen or incubator on fertile eggs. Sell, kill, or confine the male bird as soon as the hatching season is over.

A Mistake Made by Many

When you suffer pains and aches
by day and sleep disturbing bladder weakness by night, feel tired, nervous and run down, the kidneys and bladder should be restored to healthy,
strong and regular action. It is a mistake to postpone treatment. Foley Kidney Pills put the kidneys in sound, healthy condition and keep them active and strong. H. P. Dunn,
Druggist.—Advt. mw1

HELGESEN HAS EYE ON TOGA

Said That Congressman May Enter
Lists Against McCumber.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 1.—Congressman H. T. Helgesen of the First district may become a candidate for the United States senate to succeed
Porter J. McCumber. Friends assert that an announcement of his entry
may be forthcoming at any time.

The Iron Duke's Regime.

The Spartan regime followed by Wellington on his campaigns appears to have upset one of his Spanish allies
even more than the Iron Duke's probi-tion of looting. General Alava, who commanded a brigade in the Peninsular war and was subsequently Spanish
ambassador in London, told Lord Stanhope: "When I traveled in company with Wellington and asked him what time he proposed starting in the morning he usually said, 'At daylight.' To the question of what we should find
for dinner his usual answer was, 'Cold meat.' I have contracted a horror of the two expressions, 'cold meat' and
'daylight.'—London Opinion.

And That's French.
Probably the funniest word in the English language is debut.—Acheson Globe.

A Big Sale Now On

New Silk Waists---98c

All Sizes=34 to 44

Murphy's
THE STORE OF QUALITY

A TEXAS BRONCHO

How a Preacher Bought Him and Then Broke Him.

A STRUGGLE FOR MASTERY.

The Ugly Little Brute Was Tricky and
For Awhile It Seemed as Though He Would Win the Battle With the Circuit Rider, but He Didn't.

My first appointment, writes Rev.
Henry E. Wing, was to a big circuit
in southeastern Iowa, with headquarters in a small hamlet. As I had left my family temporarily in the east, I took a room in the village tavern. An immediate practical need was a horse to "ride the circuit."

Learning that a Mr. Williams had brought in a string of horses from the southwest, I strolled out to his ranch
to take a look at them. One of them was, to me, an entirely new specimen
—a Texas broncho. He was certainly not at all like the "mount" of the typical pioneer Methodist preacher and was the homeliest creature on four legs that I ever saw, with no "form"
to speak of and of a color that the cleaner he was the dirtier he looked.
But he was "all horse," and I took
quite a fancy for him.

As soon as his owner saw that I was interested in him he was discovered
to be a very choice animal that Mr.
Williams had purchased as a gift for his little daughter. But I persuaded him to put a price on the colt, and he named $75. I met this with an offer of 75 cents. With this a "dicker" began, participated in by about a hundred interested spectators and ending
about dusk with a deal at $16.50. So I made a partial payment to bind the bargain and sent for my old army outfit.

About a fortnight afterward, early in the morning, before many were likely to be about, with my good bridle
on my arm and my trusty saddle on my shoulder, I slipped quietly out to the Williams ranch. He backed my broncho into the border of a grove of young maples. He then strapped his
(the broncho's) hind fetlocks to two saplings about sixteen inches apart and tied his head with a short halter to a tree in front. Thus secured the frantic creature could neither rear nor lie down, and without much difficulty I got the bridle and saddle on.

My attention had been so engrossed
in these preparations that I had not noticed the crowd that had gathered to see the "Yankee preacher" give—or,
rather, make—an exhibition at "broncho busting." This was what I had tried to avoid, for, while I had perfect confidence in my ability to mount and ride the animal, I did not care to make a "swagger" of my horsemanship. But their presence now stirred my ambition to make something of a show of
my proficiency.

Mr. Williams suggested that I mount
and get a firm seat before he released
the colt, but I declined, and as the freed horse sprang forward I leaped
to his back and found the stirrups.
The crowd gave a little exclamation of surprise, and then rewarded the feat
with a rousing cheer. I was elated now and full of confidence. I had had all sorts of performances under me in that same saddle and knew all the
tricks and capers of the species.

Al! All but one. Leaping out from among the trees, he lit with his four feet close together and his back in a hump, with me perched on the pinnacle. Then with a series of marvelous contortions he kept me bumping, every blow producing a concussion at the base of the brain. I kept my balance with my feet firm in the straight stirrups and my knees pressed tight
against his sides. But that repeated pounding stunned me. My head began to swim, and I realized that a few more such jolts would unhorse me.

And then I prayed—just a gasp.
With the breath in which that prayer
was uttered the colt took a notion to run away. Apparently seized with a sudden fit of homesickness, he started for Texas, 1,000 miles away. Through the open gate and down the south road

Non-Alcohol

Delivered To Any Part of the city.

Phone 213

Brainerd Brewery

WHICH SIDE OF

THE SCOTLEN

Does your coal come from Our coal is all carefully inspected before we accept it—is yours. Our coal has no slag or dirt, or in fact any foreign material to add to the weight or detract from the heating quality. We take good care of our trade at all times.

JOHN LARSON

Studebaker and White
Automobiles and Trucks

Cars on hand for immediate delivery.
Bargains on used cars.

C. A. OLSON, Agent

513 South 7th St.

Telephone 236 J

The Song of the Ford

BY RICHARD N. ELLIOTT

I have looked at the canopied coaches that ride
Like a ship of the gods on the sea,
And the swaths of their cutting are heavy and wide,
Like a bungalow out on a spree;
I have heard of their glory in story and scree,
But the more of their glory I scan
The better I know that the car that I need
Is a car that will work for a man.

I am not of the gods; I reside on the earth;
I am fond of the neighborhood, too,
And I want a machine that will render its worth
In the things that I want it to do;
And the ship of the gods may be good for the gink
With a million or so in his hoard,
But I know what I know, and I think what I think,
And I think I will get me a Ford.

I will get it, and settle, and put it to use,
And the ships of the gods may cavort;
They may run them on a gallon of juice—
But the Ford gets there first—on a quart.
They may smile at the little machine that I run,
They may laugh, if they like to, and can,
But the car that I want for myself is the one.
That is worth what it costs to a man.

Joke a Ford and you joke at the sands of seas
And the leaves when the forests are full;
When a bull rushes into a nest full of bees
Is the joke on the bees or the bull?
They are common—for everyone has 'em but me,
And I feel pretty lonesome and bored,
And I want what will be what I want it to be,
So I'm going to buy me a Ford.

he flew, while I leaned forward on his neck and relaxed my strained muscles
and regained my wind and nerve.

At last we descended, over the rim
of the prairie, to a stream bordered with trees, and I turned him out into a thick clump of bushes. Then I practiced a method suggested to me years before, the same rule as for handling a boy—"first teach him that you are his master, and then show him that you
are his best friend, but do not let him ever forget for a single minute that you are his master."

I dismounted and spent an hour petting and caring for the hot and discouraged creature. He was too used up at first to resent my advances had he been inclined to, and he soon seemed to realize that my intentions were friendly. I patted him and talked to him in kindly tones and led him about to browse. Finally I watered him, mounted him and rode back home.

And I have always accounted this as
my real debut into the "traveling connection."—New York Mail.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
FOR BACKACHE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

A. F. GROVES, M. D.

Practice Limited to
Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat
GLASSES FITTED CORRECTLY
Office Iron Exchange Building

H. G. INGERSOLL, D. D. S.
DENTIST

Room 204 Iron Exchange Bldg.
Brainerd, Minn.

T. C. BLEWITT
LAWYER

Practice in all Courts
Established 1899

COLLECTIONS AND INSURANCE
DEPARTMENTS
217-218 Iron Exchange Bldg.
Brainerd, Minnesota

Mason Work — Bricklaying
Plastering, Cement Work
CHARLES PETERSON
623 Pine St. So., Brainerd, Minn.
Phone 271-W

Thompson Bros.
& Clausen

Manufacturers of
Cement Blocks, Brick, Tile, Chimney
Blocks and Reinforced Well Curbing.
Will put in foundations, Sidewalks
and all kinds of Cement Work.

107 West Front St., Brainerd.

FISHING
TACKLESEE THE PRICE ON OUR GOODS

They all go and look and then come
and buy the Shakespeare tackle, because when you catch a fish you know
that he won't get away. Its honor
built and fully guaranteed

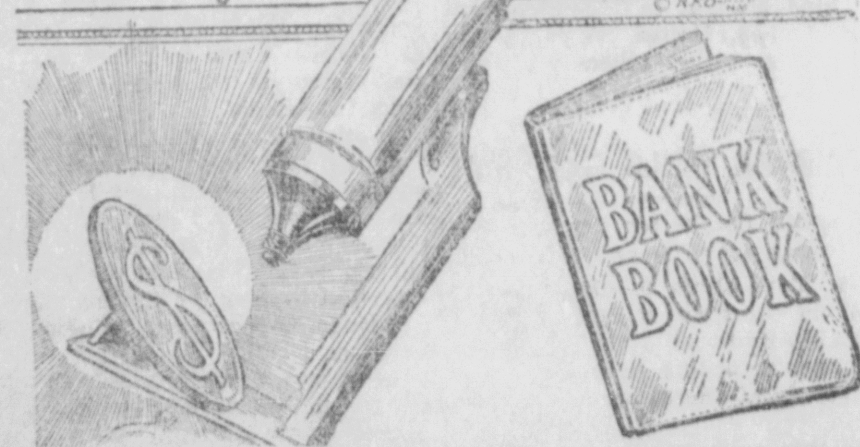

ROW BOAT MOTORS

In the market for a Row Boat Motor?
Come and see the KOBAN two cylinder. The best recommendation that we can give is to have you ask the
men who own them.

Ransford Billiard Hall
Coffrain & Hess, Props.RELIABLE FAMILY MEDICINES

at one-third price of advertised
preparations. Write for catalogue.
HOME REMEDY CO.
BUFFALO, N. Y.

Every dollar that
the Careful Man
Banks in his youth
will increase a hundred fold to him in his old age

HERE'S A FACT: THE MONEY YOU SPEND NOW IS
MANY TIMES THAT MONEY, BECAUSE IT IS CHEATING
YOURSELF OUT OF THE PROFIT THAT MONEY WOULD EARN
FOR YOU SOME DAY.

IN OTHER WORDS, YOU ARE THROWING AWAY THE
"FOUNDATION" ON WHICH YOU COULD BUILD A FORTUNE.
YOU ARE CASTING AWAY THE SEED WHICH WOULD BE-COME A TREE IF PLANTED.

BANK WITH US.

WE PAY INTEREST ON TIME AND SAVINGS DEPOSITS.

First National Bank

Brainerd, - - Minn.
Established 1881
Capital and Surplus

One Hundred Thousand Dollars

THE WEATHER

Weather Forecast for Next 24 Hours.
Generally fair today.
June 8—Maximum 62, minimum
42. Rainfall 41 hundredths inches.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Plumbing and heating, estimates
given. 710 Laurel—Advt. 445p
L. G. Foley, of St. Paul, was in the city today.

Miss Dorothy Hele went to St. Paul
this afternoon.

For Spring Water Phone 264. 44
Miss Mary Headman went to Minneapolis this afternoon.

Miss Anna Hansen, of Ironton, is visiting Miss Clara DeRoche.

Mrs. Richard Abrams and son went to Minneapolis this afternoon.

William Kontos returned this noon
from a business trip to Hibbing.

Mrs. C. C. Chase of Prairie du
Chien, Wis., is visiting at the home
of her daughter, Mrs. M. E. Ryan.

Nettleton sells homes on easy terms
—Advt. 54f

Mrs. G. W. Mosier went to St.
Cloud this afternoon to witness the graduation of her daughter, Miss Jean Mosier.

Morris D. Folsom, Teacher of Piano, 311 North Fourth St. Phone
102-J.—Advt. 30816

C. A. Woolsey, of the Northern Express Co., St. Paul, was in Brainerd today. He is a traveling agent of the company.

Phone 359L for DRY millwood.—
Advt. 1784f

In the month of April the consumption of current increased so in Brainerd as to reduce the cost to the city
to 2c a kilowatt.

Regular Meeting
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
WEDNESDAY 9th
8 p. m.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and
Mrs. Fred Fleischacker of Daggett
Brook on Monday. Mother and child
are doing nicely.

Plumbing and heating, estimates
given. 710 Laurel—Advt. 445p

Evangelist Clarence J. Martin will conduct the Bible and prayer service at the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening.

We fit the new "Elastik Eyeglass."
Dr. E. E. Long, Osteopath. 2911f

(W. M. Jenkins, of the Eagle Lake
Realty Co., went to Peoria, Ill., this afternoon and will return with a large party of kind buyers.

Lawn grass seed, clover, timothy
and blue grass, at D. M. Clark & Co.

Rev. Alex B. Colvin will speak in English at the Swedish Baptist church next Sunday evening. The whole service will be in English.

District court resumed this morning with Judge B. F. Wright on the bench. The case of Lane vs the Brainerd Sash & Door Co. is on trial.

Ask

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson went to
St. Cloud this afternoon to attend the graduation exercises, their daughter,
Miss Grace Carlson, being a graduate.

Any one desiring to secure Lycosite
Fluid can do so by calling at 601
Sixth street south. 1884f

Mrs. W. S. McClenahan has gone to
St. Cloud to attend the graduation exercises, her sister, Miss Marjorie Poppenberg, being one of the graduates.

Your

Mrs. S. R. Adair went to St. Cloud
this afternoon to attend the graduation exercises at the normal, her daughter, Miss Marie Adair, being a graduate.

Lawn mowers from $3 to $14 at
D. M. Clark & Co's. 2654f

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Clarkson have gone to Winona where Mr. Clarkson
will attend the state United Commercial Travelers convention as a delegate from Brainerd council.

Grocer

Farm loans for farmers, three or five years time at 6 per cent. Security National Loan Company, Brainerd, Minn. 2954f

Lots, buy now, pay later, Nettleton.
64f

Warmer weather today gives assurances that the carnival will be more largely attended. Many auto parties from the range towns will soon arrive to visit the attractions.

For

Every style and kind of underwear
at whatever price you want to pay.
That's the assortment you have to choose from when you go to B. Kaatz
& Son.—Advt. 1f

Ice cream at Turners'. Phone
267-J. 2554f

The M. & I. special train service
Sunday morning and evening has been dubbed the "Jitney." The iron range special long ago was called
"The Merrow Widow" and that
name stuck.

A

The ladies have the opportunity of taking the Sulphur Vapor baths at
the special price of $1.00 each until July 10th. Call or phone for dates.
Phone 629. References furnished. 64

John Klow has leased the Wood-
row billiard hall from Frank Cannon
and will take charge on June 10. Mr.
Klow is from Barrows and had a boarding house and hotel there. He will put in a dining room and kitchen
at the new place of business. The grand opening will occur on June 16.
There will be good music and a lunch.

GOLD BAR

O. B. Hamlin and assistants are erecting the playground apparatus on
the South side school grounds, northeast corner of Sixth and Oak. As fast as one article is constructed the children immediately put the same to use. This morning 59 children of all ages kept the "teeter totters"

bouncing in the air and a steady stream shot down the slide. This afternoon the swings will be in shape for occupancy. As the vacation season is at hand there is every indication that the parks playground
apparatus will be used to its full capacity. It will make a stronger, sturdier and more healthful Brainerd, for kid time is play time and no
child can properly develop unless it
has the room and opportunity to play.
These are inalienable privileges of a happy childhood.

Button

Glasses properly fitted. Dr. Long.
2911f

Started Early.

"I'm not surprised to hear that Grab-
son is a rich man."
"I understand you knew him when
he was a small boy."

"Yes, and at a time when the rest of
us wanted to go out west and hunt
real live Indians the only kind of red
men he cared about were those on pennies."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

TodayGirl of the Period.

"Well, is your bride a good housekeeper?"

"She hasn't had much experience
along those lines, I must admit. She thinks anybody ought to be satisfied
with an ice cream soda for breakfast."
—Kansas City Journal.

Slight not what's near through aiming at what's far.—Euripides.

BLOOD RINGS ON EGGS

Fertile Eggs Great Source of Loss—
Keep Male Bird Out of Flock
After Hatching Season

It is conservatively estimated that there is an annual loss in eggs in this country of $45,000,000. Practically all of this enormous loss is sustained
by the farmers of this country, as it
is on the general farms that the great bulk of eggs is produced, says the weekly News-Week. A very great part of this loss can be prevented by
the production of infertile eggs,
which are laid by hens that do not have a male bird with them. The male bird has no influence whatever
on the number of eggs laid. Therefore, as soon as the hatching season
is over the male should be removed from the flock.

The greatest trouble from blood
rings in eggs occurs in hot weather.
Special care should be given to the
gathering and storing of the eggs during the late spring and summer
months. At these times the eggs
should be gathered at least twice a day, placed in a room or cellar where
the temperature does not rise above
70 degree F., and marketed two or three times a week.

Blood rings are caused by the development of the embryo of a fertile egg
and its subsequent death. It is impossible to hatch an infertile egg or
cause a blood ring to form in one.
It is generally considered that eggs
become infertile from 7 to 14 days
after the male bird is removed from the flock. Repeated experiments have shown that where fertile and infertile eggs are kept under similar conditions, the fertile eggs spoiled
much quicker, due to the fact that
they deteriorate faster than infertile
eggs in the average summer temperature. Summer heat has the same effect as the hen or incubator on fertile eggs. Sell, kill, or confine the male bird as soon as the hatching season is over.

A Mistake Made by Many

When you suffer pains and aches
by day and sleep disturbing bladder weakness by night, feel tired, nervous and run down, the kidneys and bladder should be restored to healthy,
strong and regular action. It is a mistake to postpone treatment. Foley Kidney Pills put the kidneys in sound, healthy condition and keep them active and strong. H. P. Dunn, Druggist.—Advt. mwf

HELGESEN HAS EYE ON TOGA

Said That Congressman May Enter
Lists Against McCumber.

Grand Forks, N. D., June 7.—Congressman H. T. Helgesen of the First district may become a candidate for
the United States senate to succeed
Porter J. McCumber. Friends assert
that an announcement of his entry
may be forthcoming at any time.

The Iron Duke's Regime.

The Spartan regime followed by Wellington on his campaigns appears to have upset one of his Spanish allies
even more than the Iron Duke's probi-
tion of looting. General Alava, who commanded a brigade in the Peninsular war and was subsequently Spanish
ambassador in London, told Lord Stan-
hope: "When I traveled in company
with Wellington and asked him what
time he proposed starting in the morning he usually said, 'At daylight.' To the question of what we should find
for dinner his usual answer was, 'Cold
meat.' I have contracted a horror of the two expressions, 'cold meat' and
'daylight.'"—London Opinion.

And That's French.

Probably the funniest word in the English language is debut.—Aitchison
Globe.

A Big Sale Now OnNew Silk Waists---98c

All Sizes=34 to 44

Murphy's
THE STORE OF QUALITY

A TEXAS BRONCHO

How a Preacher Bought Him and Then Broke Him.

A STRUGGLE FOR MASTERY.

The Ugly Little Brute Was Tricky and
For Awhile It Seemed as Though He
Would Win the Battle With the Circuit Rider, but He Didn't.

My first appointment, writes Rev.
Henry E. Wing, was to a big circuit
in southeastern Iowa, with headquarters in a small hamlet. As I had left
my family temporarily in the east, I took a room in the village tavern. An immediate practical need was a horse to "ride the circuit."

Learning that a Mr. Williams had brought in a string of horses from the southwest, I strolled out to his ranch
to take a look at them. One of them
was, to me, an entirely new specimen
—a Texas broncho. He was certainly not at all like the "mount" of the typical pioneer Methodist preacher and
was the homeliest creature on four
legs that I ever saw, with no "form"
to speak of and of a color that the cleaner he was the dirtier he looked.
But he was "all horse," and I took
quite a fancy for him.

As soon as his owner saw that I was interested in him he was discovered
to be a very choice animal that Mr.
Williams had purchased as a gift for
his little daughter. But I persuaded
him to put a price on the colt, and he named $75. I met this with an offer of 75 cents. With this a "dicker" began, participated in by about a hundred interested spectators and ending
about dusk with a deal at $16.50. So
I made a partial payment to bind the bargain and sent for my old army outfit.

About a fortnight afterward, early
in the morning, before many were likely to be about, with my good bridle
on my arm and my trusty saddle on
my shoulder, I slipped quietly out to the Williams ranch. He backed my broncho into the border of a grove of young maples. He then strapped his
(the broncho's) hind fetlocks to two saplings about sixteen inches apart and
tied his head with a short halter to a tree in front. This secured the francise creature could neither rear nor lie down, and without much difficulty I
got the bridle and saddle on.

My attention had been so engrossed
in these preparations that I had not noticed the crowd that had gathered to see the "Yankee preacher" alive—or,
rather, make an exhibition at "broncho busting." This was what I had tried to avoid, for, while I had perfect confidence in my ability to mount and
ride the animal, I did not care to make a "swagger" of my horsemanship. But their presence now stirred my ambition to make something of a show of
my proficiency.

Mr. Williams suggested that I mount
and get a firm seat before he released
the colt, but I declined, and as the freed horse sprang forward I leaped
to his back and found the stirrups.
The crowd gave a little exclamation of
surprise, and then rewarded the feat
with a rousing cheer. I was elated
now and full of confidence. I had had all sorts of performances under me in
that same saddle and knew all the
tricks and capers of the species.

All? All but one. Leaping out from among the trees, he lit with his four feet close together and his back in a hump, with me perched on the pinna-
cle. Then with a series of marvelous contortions he kept me bumping, every blow producing a concussion at the base of the brain. I kept my balance
with my feet firm in the straight stirrups and my knees pressed tight
against his sides. But that repeated pounding stunned me. My head began
to swim, and I realized that a few more such jolts would unhorse me.

And then I prayed—just a gasp.
With the breath in which that prayer
was uttered the colt took a notion to run away. Apparently seized with a sudden fit of homesickness, he started for Texas, 1,000 miles away. Through the open gate and down the south road

Non-Alcohol

Delivered To Any Part
of the city.

Phone 213

Brainerd Brewery

WHICH SIDE OFTHE SCEN

Does your coal come from Our coal is all carefully inspected before we accept it—is yours Our coal has no slag or dirt, or in fact any foreign material to add to the weight or detract from the heating quality. We take good care of our trade at all times.

JOHN LARSON

Studebaker and White
Automobiles and Trucks

Cars on hand for immediate delivery.
Bargains on used cars.

C. A. OLSON, Agent

513 South 7th St.

:-:

Telephone 236 J

The Song of the Ford

BY RICHARD N. ELLIOTT

I have looked at the canopied coaches that ride
Like a ship of the gods on the sea,
And the swaths of their cutting are heavy and wide,
Like a bungalow out on a spree;
I have heard of their glory in story and creed,
But the more of their glory I scan
The better I know that the car that I need
Is a car that will work for a man.

I am not of the gods; I reside on the earth;
I am fond of the neighborhood, too,
And I want a machine that will render its worth
In the things that I want it to do;
And the ship of the gods may be good for the gink
With a million or so in his hoard,
But I know what I know, and I think what I think,
And I think I will get me a Ford.

I will get it, and settle, and put it to use,
And the ships of the gods may cavort;
They may run them on a gallon of juice—
But the Ford gets there first—on a quart.
They may smile at the little machine that I run,
They may laugh, if they like to, and can,
But the car that I want for myself is the one
That is worth what it costs to a man.

Joke a Ford and you joke at the sands of seas
And the leaves when the forests are full;
When a bull rushes into a nest full of bees
Is the joke on the bees or the bull?
They are common—for everyone has 'em but me,
And I feel pretty lonesome and bored,
And I want what will be what I want it to be,
So I'm going to buy me a Ford.

he flew, while I leaned forward on his
neck and relaxed my strained muscles
and regained my wind and nerve.

At last we descended, over the rim
of the prairie, to a stream bordered
with trees, and I turned him out into a thick clump of bushes. Then I practiced a method suggested to me years
before, the same rule as for handling a
boy—"first teach him that you are his master, and then show him that you
are his best friend, but do not let him
ever forget for a single minute that
you are his master."

I dismounted and spent an hour petting and caring for the hot and discouraged creature. He was too used up at first to resent my advances had he

been inclined to, and he soon seemed
to realize that my intentions were
friendly. I patted him and talked to him in kindly tones and led him about
to browse. Finally I watered him,
mounted him and rode back home.
And I have always accounted this as
my real debut into the "traveling connection."—New York Mail.

FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS
FOR BACKACHE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER

WOMAN'S REALM

THIS TEACHER IS APPRECIATED

Miss Mae Staples is Given a Most Flattering Endorsement by Barrows People

Some teachers' work is appreciated by parents and school board, and that is the case with Miss Mae Staples of Brainerd, who has been teaching three years in Barrows. The Barrows News gives Miss Staples this eloquent testimonial, voicing appreciation of newspaper, parents and school board and also relating that Miss Staples gets a raise in salary. Here is what the Barrows News says:

School closed today, Friday, in District No. 10, with a picnic at Buffalo Creek.

In appreciation of the excellent service rendered, the school board invited Miss Staples to return and offered her a raise of $10 a month making her salary $70 a month. Miss Staples has been with us three years, all hope to see her back another year. She has been a social leader during her stay among us, has been a great help in the work of the church and Sunday school. She has also been a companion to our children, which few teachers would care to be, always entered into the spirit of the things at hand, be it work or play. All wish her a pleasant vacation, and hope to see her return rested and in better health.

WORLD'S FASHION NEWS

Inspiration for Autumn Modes Come From all Over the World, Beautiful Fashions

The inspiration for the autumn modes seems to come from all over the world, from the past and from the present. There are unmistakable evidences of the periods of Louis XIV, Louis XV and Louis XVI, particularly the latter. There are also signs of a return to the styles of 1880-1881, in the polonaise drapery and the slender figure of princess line.

The curve at the waist-line is well marked in the advance coat models for autumn and in the redingotes now being worn by the best dressed women of Chicago, New York and Paris. These new coats fit the figure snugly, have seams both in the front and in the back and a long, circular, flaring basque section which reaches to within an inch of the hem of the skirt in some models, and entirely covers the dress skirt in others.

Another new feature of the coats is the high collar, called the shawl collar, which is bunched up about the shoulders in the manner of the Inevitable period. These collars are unbuttoned at the side, where they are fastened by large buttons, and hide completely the chin and mouth. There are various versions but all of them have the same characteristics.

In a new redingote now being shown by one of the leading couturiers there is a raglan shoulder and more fullness in the sleeves than we have seen for many a day. This, too, has the shawl collar of velvet. These collars, are made in serge, in velvet, in lace, in leather, and later will be made in fur, really a larger and more ambitious version of the Russian collar we enjoyed last winter.

Some of the most delightful evening gowns for summer are created in taffeta, a fabric that is also much favored for street wear, used alone or combined with woolen materials. The decenter erl in this smart fabric is the taffeta with satin stripe and with embossed or brocaded flowers. Mme. Markhamite has created a charming gown of shell pink taffeta, showing a design of large pink roses. The taffeta forms the overskirt, which has a wattleau pleat in the back, tiny panniers at the sides, and falls over an underskirt of silver lace. A snug-fitting bodice is also fashioned of silver lace and swathings of yellow Châlon net.

"Petal points" they call the new chiffon skirts, which are formed of layers of chiffon cut in points, a most charming and unusual feature of the newer evening gowns. The points overlap and usually fall over a face or satin underskirt. One of the most lovely of these gowns has pointed petals of lavender and mauve of the palest shades, with a petticoat of soft yellow lace, short enough to show the lavender silk hose and little silver slippers with silver heels.—From H. W. Gossard Co., courtesy H. F. Michael Co.

To Preserve Your Health

The kidneys are the great health preservers. Rheumatism, backache, headache, sore muscles, stiff joints came when the kidneys are out of order and fail to properly filter the blood. Foley Kidney Pills tone up tired and diseased kidneys, banish backache and stop sleep disturbing bladder troubles. H. P. Dunn.—Advt

Evening Dress for Matrons

We were threatened as early as in the spring by the most highly approved Parisian couturiers that full, short skirts would prevail and when they arrived we gladly accepted them without protest. Were they not a delightful change from the long, tight skirt and just the thing for tailors and dance frocks? And then the American matron hesitated—as an evening frock for her debutante daughter, well and good, but for the dignified hostess, who demanded a trained reception gown—never.

As a result, we have the gown illustrated, designed and worn recently by an American society woman. The novelty is in the trim. When she desires, the wearer may appeal in training gown with all the dignity that social etiquette demands, and when the dance music starts, she may gently lift the train and indulge to her heart's content, with all the comfort of the short but not too voluminous skirt.

The gown was of white goldenrod satin with the skirt scantily gathered at a slight, high waist line. The skirt finished in a straight train, which was looped under at about the knees, and this gave the extra fullness. An elaborate garniture of crystal and pearl beads draped the bodice of white daphne silk. The crystal effect was also worked out on the sleeves and in the hair and slipper ornaments, and a handsome string of pearls completed the attractive costume.

Confidential.

The dull routine of the day in the bank was one day lightened by the receipt of the following communication: "Dear Bank—What interest would you give on a Deposit of 15 dollars? What interest per annum and also (confidential) could my Husband draw it out without my signature and is it the Law that I would have to have his Permission to Deposit it there in your Bank. Please to answer back an be sure to say what interest per annum an if he can draw it out Yours with respect."—New York Post.

The Word "Despatch."

It was Dr. Johnson who was largely responsible for the bad spelling of the word "despatch." Although the mistake never occurred in his letters and for 225 years the word had been written correctly, it appeared in his dictionary as "despatch." Until 1820, however, the wrong spelling did not become general. Then people began to look upon Johnson's work as a standard one, and British government departments and various newspapers changed the proper "dispatch" to "despatch."

REPORTER IN THE NEWS

Miss Mary Dillon, Society Reporter of St. Paul Pioneer Press, Irish Girl Taken for Spy

Miss Mary Dillon, a charming American of Irish parentage, reporter on the St. Paul Pioneer Press and a speaker at many women's clubs meetings, had an experience in Canada which does not fall to the lot of every club woman.

News dispatches say Miss Mary was subjected to arrest in Vancouver, B. C., returning from the general council meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at Portland, Ore. She was suspected of being a German spy, having offended by photographing a Canadian government badge.

Mrs. Clara K. Fuller, of the Little Falls Transcript, says it is English diplomacy to be always well on the defensive.

Marriage Licenses

June 8—Harry Jordan and Bernice Dalton.

Dance and Prize Waltz

A dance and prize waltz will be given by the United Order of Foresters June 14th at Elks hall. Tickets 25c. 614

Ice Cream Social

The Evangelical Aid society of the church will give an ice cream social on the lawn of the parsonage in Northeast Brainerd commencing 6 o'clock on Tuesday evening, June 15.

W. C. O. F. Entertain

The Aid society of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will give a card party Thursday afternoon, June 10 at 3 o'clock at the Knights of Columbus hall. There will be an important meeting of the W. C. O. F. at 2 o'clock.

Dalton-Jordan

Miss Bernice Dalton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Dalton, of Mangane, was married to Harry Jordan at the court house Tuesday Judge J. T. Sanborn officiating. The witnesses were John Labowitz of Deerwood, a friend of the bridegroom and Mrs. Ella H. Polk, of the probate court.

Some romance appears to be connected with the wedding. It appears that the bride and her two little sisters were permitted to come to Brainerd as guests of their teacher, Miss Rose Hoerner. Yesterday Miss Hoerner permitted them to go to the carnival.

Later she saw the oldest girl, Bernice, who informed her she had been married. Miss Hoerner promptly wired the girl's father at Mangane, he was unable to make the noon train today, missing connections.

The newly married couple were seen today walking the streets at the carnival. The bride, wearing short dresses, had little to say. The bridegroom admitted their identity and said they had been married and that they expected the arrival of her father. They were staying at the Iron Exchange hotel.

He said the girl was of age and that he had so sworn at the clerk of court's office when getting the marriage license.

Their enjoyment of the carnival is tempered to a certain degree as to what reception Papa Dalton may give them when he hears the news. The bridegroom said he was 22 years of age. The youthful bride would not mention her age, but her little sisters said she was not 18 by any means.

Impossible of Course.

"Quick, quick, my dear; everybody else is in the lifeboat! The ship is sinking!" "Wait a moment. I cannot be seen like this. The lifebelt makes my coat pucker."—London Bystander.

A Total Abstainer.

Excited individual—Is this where they swear people? Commissioner For Oaths—Yes, sir. What can I do for you? Excited individual—I want to take an oath never to put down another carpet.

Taking No Chances.

"How is it you never married?" "I don't care for women's society. Besides, married life would disturb my literary labors." "What do you write?" "Love stories."—Stray Stories.

How Mean a Man Can Be.

"I found a letter in your coat pocket that you had not mailed." "Is that all you found in my pocket?" "That is all there was in it." "Oh, no, it's not." "What else, I'd like to know?" "A rip in the lining, but of course you were not looking for anything like that."—New York Globe.

Tame.

"Did you like the last dance?" "Not very much; mother frowned at me only twice."—Princeton Tiger.

EVERYBODY HAPPY

The Daily Crowds of Laughing --Joking--Bubbling Humanity

Every day is bargain day at this busy Carnival sacrifice of L. M. Koop's entire stock—Nothing overlooked—Every new spring suit—Dress—Coat—Waist—Skirt—Shoe—Hat and Furnishings going at some unmatched low price—We do not wish to detract from your enjoying the Carnival shows but we do wish to remind you that these incomparable money saving up to date bargains will not be yours at your service long—Better do your SPRING SHOPPING HERE THIS WEEK and you will be many dollars ahead—Daily crowds are making money this week at this L. M. Koop's $30,000.00 Sacrifice—This is to remind those who are going to do it TOMORROW—

What War Moves Mean

Written for the United Press By J. W. T. Mason

New York, June 9—Lemberg's recapture is seriously threatened through the crossing of the Dniester river by Germany's South Galician army. Zurawna, the village announced by Berlin as marking the crossing is 40 miles southeast of Lemberg, near one of the two principal railways that reach Lemberg from the south.

The Dniester river forms the southern defensive line of the Russian forces guarding Lemberg. It is easily protected and the Russians prevented the Austrians from securing a lodgement on the northern bank during the Galician fighting last spring and winter.

Throughout Gen. von Mackensen's drive across western Galicia, the southern German army was also held in check by the Slavs along the Dniester. The present crossing is the first one the Teutonic allies have been able to win, and is a more serious threat against the safety of Lemberg than was the fall of Premysl.

The district between the Dniester and Lemberg is a plain and is admirably served by a strategic railway system. It is a more favorable military approach to the Galician capital than is the terrain eastward from Premysl. If the Germans can maintain their crossing they will compel the Russians to fight on two fronts, facing westward towards Premysl and southward toward the Dniester, while the Austro-German lines will form an ever lengthening arc of a circle. The Teutonic strategy will have as its objective the gradual squeezing of the Slavs fronts until a retreat beyond Lemberg will be necessary before Lemberg itself is entirely surrounded. This maneuver may be conducted very rapidly or it may be delayed. This issue depends on the Slav supply of ammunition.

The disposition of the Austro-Germans indicates an effort is being made to leave open only the northern and northeastern roads for a Russian retreat from Lemberg. In these directions the Russians must be driven no more than sixty miles before they cross the frontier into their own territory.

A force of Russians is now operating in southeastern Galicia, toward Bukovina. If Lemberg falls and the retreating Slavs are prevented from joining the southeastern army the latter will find itself in a serious predicament. The whole of Galicia should then quickly be regained by the Austro-Germans.

GORDON SCHOOL BREEZES

H. Van Horn has finished plastering the school house and returned to his home at Pelican lake.

H. Spencer and wife were Brainerd callers Friday.

The old bachelors party at Miller's in Wisewise was well attended Saturday and all report a good time.

Mrs. G. Beasley and Mrs. P. Johnson were at the Lake Edward cemetery Sunday.

Mr. Wicklund received his new car, a Saxon six.

C. A. Smith was attending business in Brainerd Thursday.

R. Jordan was in Brainerd Thursday on business.

H. Sterns was in Brainerd Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Heck of Brainerd, were out to our Sunday school Sunday and gave a talk enjoyed by all, and we hope they will come again.

The Sunday school will have their Children's Day exercises the 20th of June. Will be pleased to have all come and help take part.

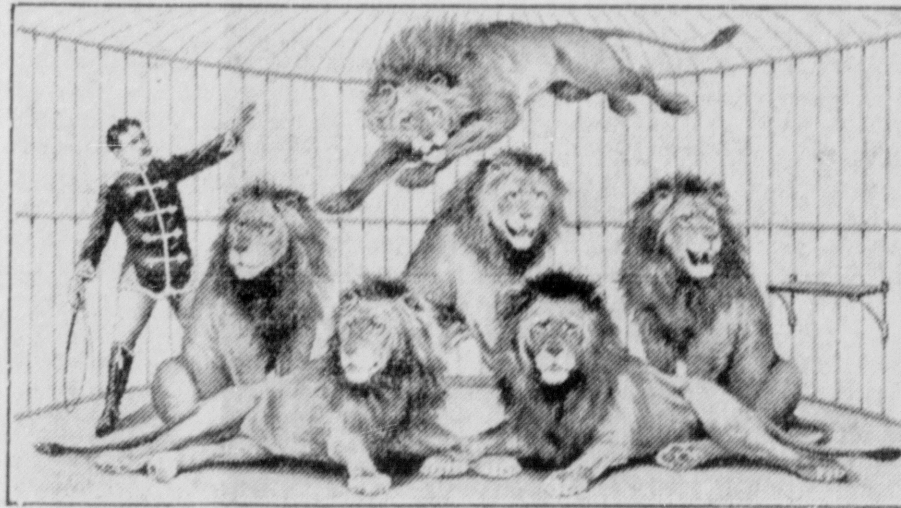

Little Walter Jordan cut his foot on a piece of glass Saturday.

The Sunday school will be held at 3 o'clock hereafter as we will have speakers out from Brainerd. Everybody are cordially invited to come and bring some one with them.

HAPPY JOE.

The Other Way.

"Have you been operating in the stock market of late?" "No, I've been operated upon."—Judge.

Wonderful Performing Lions

There are some wonderful lions with the Sparks Circus that will exhibit here Monday, June 21. They are not only of amazing size and beauty but they have been trained to do some of the most thrilling acts ever presented to an audience. Herr Fritz Brunner, the world's greatest lion tamer, was born and raised in the jungles of equatorial Africa, and from childhood was accustomed to hear the roars of the man-eating kings of the forest that prowled about his cabin at night.

His father once captured some lion cubs which he trained to aid him in his hunting expeditions. Thus reared the boy naturally became a lion tamer and hunter. Selecting some cubs of the largest species known he reared them and educated them to perform feats that would illustrate the amazing strength and agility of these beasts.

During the performance of the Sparks shows a group of these monster animals will be turned loose in a great steel enclosure in full view of the audience. Herr Brunner will enter this enclosure, unarmed, and put these lions through some astonishing performances. It is the most thrilling act of the kind ever seen and will never be forgotten by the beholder.

Like every other act and feature presented with the Sparks shows it is far away from and superior to anything of the kind ever seen before. There are numerous other trained animal acts in which tigers, leopards, hyenas, tremendous elephants, etc., will obey the commands of their fearless masters.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

To the Charter of the City of Brainerd

TO THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BRAINERD:

The Brainerd Charter commission propose the amendments to the Charter of the City of Brainerd which are hereto attached.

Dated this 25th day of May, 1915.

A. J. HALSTED,

President.

GEORGE D. LABAR,

H. F. MICHAEL,

C. H. PAINE,

N. W. BETZOLD,

CARL ZAPFEE,

RICHARD ELSE,

BRICK KRONBERG,

WERNER HEMSTEAD,

JUD WRIGHT,

HENRY L. COHEN,

Secretary.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CHARTER OF THE CITY OF BRAINERD

That Section 51 of Chapter Three of the Charter of the City of Brainerd be amended to read as follows:

After the making of the reports provided for in the last section the city council shall levy such tax on all property real and personal within said city, except such as may be exempt by the laws of this state as it shall deem necessary, in addition to the other revenues of the city as reported as aforesaid, to defray the current general expenses of the city for the (then fiscal year; but no such taxes for such current expenses nor for any of the purposes mentioned in section fifty-four of this charter, nor for park purposes or public library purposes or for a revolving fund, shall in the aggregate exceed twelve and one half mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the property in the city.

That Section 119 of Chapter Eight be amended to read as follows:

The city council shall have power to levy, assess and collect against all the assessable property of the city such taxes as are necessary to provide municipal funds for the city and the various departments thereof as is provided by this charter or by the general laws of the State of Minnesota, but the aggregate levy and assessment shall not in any one year exceed twelve and one-half mills on the dollar, and any levy and assessment in excess thereof, shall be void as to such excess; and in case the aggregate assessment is excessive as above provided the city council shall have power to reconsider and annul enough of such levy and assessment as is necessary to reduce the same to the limit above specified, but such reduction shall be so made if possible as not to affect the levy and assessment for general current funds or for the payment of interest on the bonded indebtedness.

May 26—June 2-9-16.

Worthy Teacher is Trouble.

Some people, because of their own happiness, feel moved to help others. But more people, out of their sorrows, learn to minister to those who need love and kindness. There is no enlarger and deepener of the life like that unvisited for guest, Trouble, who carries rich gifts under his black cloak.—Great Thoughts.

Don't Buy That Spring or Summer Suit

Until you have seen those Special Suiting we are selling at less than "Reasonable Prices"

ALL NEW STOCK--ALL NEW STYLES

A Large Assortment to Choose From at $17.00 and Up

Satisfaction and Fit Guaranteed or Your Money Back. To Please You Pleases Us. Don't Overlook Our Cleaning and Pressing Depts. For Ladies and Gents.

NATIONAL WOOLEN MILLS

608 Laurel St. Telephone 581. Brainerd, Minn.

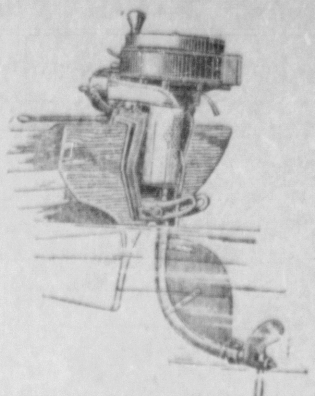

LOST HIM!

The Biggest Fish You Ever Saw. The — — broke and he got away - - - -

BUY YOUR FISHING TACKLE AT

WHITE BROS.

Then You Can Bring Home The Big One - - - -

THE GRAY GEARLESS DETACHABLE BOATMOTOR

Complete Ready to Run $55

Bore, 3 in.; stroke, 2 1/2 in.; weight, 50 lbs

WHY THE GRAY GEARLESS?

It's Mechanically Better! The Flexible Steel Shaft—allows lighter construction—no Bevel Gears. Is break—wear or consume power. More power at the wheel—cleaner run for the water—no big hub to interfere with proper action of wheel. More Speed. The Flexible Steel Shaft is the strongest thing on the outfit and the hardest thing to wear out. We will guarantee the shaft to drive 7 H. P.

Select the Gray Gearless for your boat and you will get more power, less weight, fewer parts, longer life, easier steering and a greater boat speed than is possible with any other detachable boat motor.

With all these advantages the price is less than asked for other high grade outfits.

Ask for Special Circular

ELMER FORSBERG

BRAINERD, MINN.

Local Agent

DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Brainerd People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Brainerd kidney sufferers.

Have made their local reputation. Proof lies in the testimony of Brainerd people.

Mrs. R. Abear, W. Main St., W. Brainerd, Minn., says: "One of our family had kidney complaint badly last winter and missed two weeks from school. This one's back ached and was so sore and lame that she wasn't able to get around. We gave her Doan's Kidney Pills and she got so much better that she was able to go back to school. Four years ago, I suffered from hard, dull pains in my back, together with rheumatic twinges. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, that I got at H. P. Dunn's Drug Store and they relieved all the ailments."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the name that Mrs. Abear had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advt.

Take the new M. & I. Sunday train and spend your week end at the Pullman Club, Merrifield. Good fishing, boating and bathing. Meals, boats, etc., at reasonable rates.

614-1214

WOMAN'S REALM

THIS TEACHER IS APPRECIATED

Miss Mae Staples is Given a Most Flattering Endorsement by Barrows People

Some teachers' work is appreciated by parents and school board, and that is the case with Miss Mae Staples of Brainerd, who has been teaching three years in Barrows. The Barrows News gives Miss Staples this eloquent testimonial, voicing appreciation of newspaper, parents and school board and also relating that Miss Staples gets a raise in salary. Here is what the Barrows News says:

School closed today, Friday, in District No. 10, with a picnic at Buffalo Creek.

In appreciation of the excellent service rendered, the school board invited Miss Staples to return and offered her a raise of $10 a month making her salary $70 a month. Miss Staples has been with us three years, all hope to see her back another year. She has been a social leader during her stay among us, has been a great help in the work of the church and Sunday school. She has also been a companion to our children, which few teachers would care to be, always entered into the spirit of the things at hand, be it work or play. All wish her a pleasant vacation, and hope to see her return rested and in better health.

WORLD'S FASHION NEWS

Inspiration for Autumn Modes Come From all Over the World, Beautiful Fashions

The inspiration for the autumn modes seems to come from all over the world, from the past and from the present. There are unmistakable evidences of the periods of Louis XIV, Louis XV and Louis XVI, particularly the latter. There are also signs of a return to the styles of 1880-1881, in the polonaise drapery and the slender figure of princess line.

The curve at the waist-line is well marked in the advance coat models for autumn and in the redingotes now being worn by the best dressed women of Chicago, New York and Paris. These new coats fit the figure snugly, have seams both in the front and in the back and a long, circular, flaring basque section which reaches to within an inch of the hem of the skirt in some models, and entirely covers the dress skirt in others.

Another new feature of the coats is the high collar, called the shawl collar, which is bunched up about the shoulders in the manner of the Inevitable period. These collars are unbuttoned at the side, where they are fastened by large buttons, and hide completely the chin and mouth. There are various versions but all of them have the same characteristics.

In a new redingote now being shown by one of the leading couturiers there is a raglan shoulder and more fullness in the sleeves than we have seen for many a day. This, too, has the shawl collar of velvet. These collars are made in serge, in velvet, in lace, in leather, and later will be made in fur, really a larger and more ambitious version of the Russian collar we enjoyed last winter.

Some of the most delightful evening gowns for summer are created in taffeta, a fabric that is also much favored for street wear, used alone or combined with woolen materials. The dernier cri in this smart fabric is the taffeta with satin stripe and with embossed or brocaded flowers. Mme. Markoguerite has created a charming gown of shell pink taffeta, showing a design of large pink roses. The taffeta forms the overskirt, which has a wattleau pleat in the back, tiny panniers at the sides, and falls over an underskirt of silver lace. A snug-fitting bodice is also fashioned of silver lace and swathings of yellow Calico net.

"Petat points" they call the new chiffon skirts, which are formed of layers of chiffon cut in points, a most charming and unusual feature of the newer evening gowns. The points overlap and usually fall over a face or satin underskirt. One of the most lovely of these gowns has pointed petals of lavender and mauve of the palest shades, with a petticoat of soft yellow lace, short enough to show the lavender silk hose and little silver slippers with silver heels.—From H. W. Gossard Co., courtesy H. F. Michael Co.

To Preserve Your Health

The kidneys are the great health preservers. Rheumatism, backache, headache, sore muscles, stiff joints came when the kidneys are out of order and fail to properly filter the blood. Foley Kidney Pills tone up tired and diseased kidneys, banish backache and stop sleep disturbing bladder troubles. H. P. Dunn.—Adv.

Evening Dress for Matrons

We were threatened as early as in the spring by the most highly approved Parisian couturiers that full, short skirts would prevail and when they arrived we gladly accepted them without protest. Were they not a delightful change from the long, tight skirt and just the thing for tailors and dance frocks? And then the American matron hesitated—as an evening frock for her debutante daughter, well and good, but for the dignified hostess, who demanded a trained reception gown—never.

As a result, we have the gown illustrated, designed and worn recently by an American society woman. The novelty is in the train. When she desires, the wearer may appear in training gown with all the dignity that social etiquette demands, and when the dance music starts, she may gently lift the train and indulge in her heart's content, with all the comfort of the short but not too voluminous skirt.

The gown was of white goldenrod satin with the skirt scantily gathered at a slight, high waist line. The skirt finished in a straight train, which was looped under at about the knees, and this gave the extra fullness. An elaborate garniture of crystal and pearl beads draped the bodice of white daphne silk. The crystal effect was also worked out on the sleeves and in the hair and slipper ornaments, and a handsome string of pearls completed the attractive costume.

Confidential.

The dull routine of the day in the bank was one day lightened by the receipt of the following communication: "Dear Bank—What interest would you give on a Deposit of 15 dollars? What interest per annum and also (confidential) could my Husband draw it out without my signature and is it the Law that I would have to have his Permission to Deposit it there in your Bank. Please to answer back as be sure to say what interest per annum and if he can draw it out Yours with respect."—New York Post.

The Word "Despatch."

It was Dr. Johnson who was largely responsible for the bad spelling of the word "despatch." Although the mistake never occurred in his letters and for 225 years the word had been written correctly, it appeared in his dictionary as "despatch." Until 1820, however, the wrong spelling did not become general. Then people began to look upon Johnson's work as a standard one, and British government departments and various newspapers changed the proper "despatch" to "despatch."

REPORTER IN THE NEWS

Miss Mary Dillon, Society Reporter of St. Paul Pioneer Press, Irish Girl Taken for Spy

Miss Mary Dillon, a charming American of Irish parentage, reporter on the St. Paul Pioneer Press and a speaker at many women's club meetings, had an experience in Canada which does not fall to the lot of every club woman.

News dispatches say Miss Mary was subjected to arrest in Vancouver, B. C., returning from the general council meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs at Portland, Ore. She was suspected of being a German spy, having offended by photographing a Canadian government badge.

Mrs. Clara K. Baker, of the Little Falls Transcript, says it is English diplomacy to be always well on the defensive.

Marriage Licenses

June 8.—Harry Jordan and Bernice Dalton.

Dance and Prize Waltz

A dance and prize waltz will be given by the United Order of Foresters June 14th at Elks hall. Tickets 25c. 614

Ice Cream Social

The Evangelical Aid society of the church will give an ice cream social on the lawn of the parsonage in Northeast Brainerd commencing 6 o'clock on Tuesday evening, June 15.

W. C. O. F. Entertain

The Aid society of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters will give a card party Thursday afternoon, June 10 at 3 o'clock at the Knights of Columbus hall. There will be an important meeting of the W. C. O. F. at 2 o'clock.

Dalton-Jordan

Miss Bernice Dalton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Dalton, of Mangrove, was married to Harry Jordan at the court house Tuesday Judge J. T. Sanborn officiating. The witnesses were John Labowitz of Deerwood, a friend of the bridegroom and Mrs. Ella H. Polk, of the probate court.

Some romance appears to be connected with the wedding. It appears that the bride and her two little sisters were permitted to come to Brainerd as guests of their teacher, Miss Rose Hoerner. Yesterday Miss Hoerner permitted them to go to the carnival. Later she saw the oldest girl, Bernice, who informed her she had been married. Miss Hoerner promptly wired the girl's father at Mangrove. He was unable to make the noon train today, missing connections.

The newly married couple were seen today walking the streets at the carnival. The bride, wearing short dresses, had little to say. The bridegroom admitted their identity and said they had been married and that they expected the arrival of her father. They were staying at the Iron Exchange hotel.

He said the girl was of age and that he had sworn at the clerk of court's office when getting the marriage license.

Their enjoyment of the carnival is tempered to a certain degree as to what reception Papa Dalton may give them when he hears the news. The bridegroom said he was 22 years of age. The youthful bride would not mention her age, but her little sisters said she was not 18 by any means.

Impossible of Course.

"Quick, quick, my dear; everybody else is in the lifeboat! The ship is sinking!" "Wait a moment. I cannot be seen like this. The lifebelt makes my coat pucker."—London Bystander.

A Total Abstainer.

Excited Individual—Is this where they swear people? Commissioner For Oaths—Yes, sir. What can I do for you? Excited Individual—I want to take an oath never to put down another carpet.

Taking No Chances.

"How is it you never married?" "I don't care for women's society. Besides, married life would disturb my literary labors." "What do you write?" "Love stories."—Stray Stories.

How Mean a Man Can Be.

"I found a letter in your coat pocket that you had not mailed." "Is that all you found in my pocket?" "That is all there was in it." "Oh, no, it's not." "What else, I'd like to know?" "A rip in the lining, but of course you were not looking for anything like that."—New York Globe.

Tame.

"Did you like the last dance?" "Not very much; mother frowned at me only twice."—Princeton Tiger.

EVERYBODY HAPPY

The Daily Crowds of Laughing --Joking--Bubbling Humanity

Every day is bargain day at this busy Carnival sacrifice of L. M. Koop's entire stock—Nothing overlooked—Every new spring suit—Dress—Coat—Waist—Skirt—Shoe—Hat and Furnishings going at some unmatched low price—We do not wish to detract from your enjoying the Carnival shows but we do wish to remind you that these incomparable money saving up to date bargains will not be yours at your service long—Better do your SPRING SHOPPING HERE THIS WEEK and you will be many dollars ahead—Daily crowds are making money this week at this L. M. Koop's $30,000.00 Sacrifice—This is to remind those who are going to do it TOMORROW—

What War Moves Mean

Written for the United Press

By J. W. T. Mason

New York, June 9.—Lemberg's recapture is seriously threatened through the crossing of the Dniester river by Germany's South Galician army. Zurawna, the village announced by Berlin as marking the crossing is 40 miles southeast of Lemberg, near one of the two principal railways that reach Lemberg from the south.

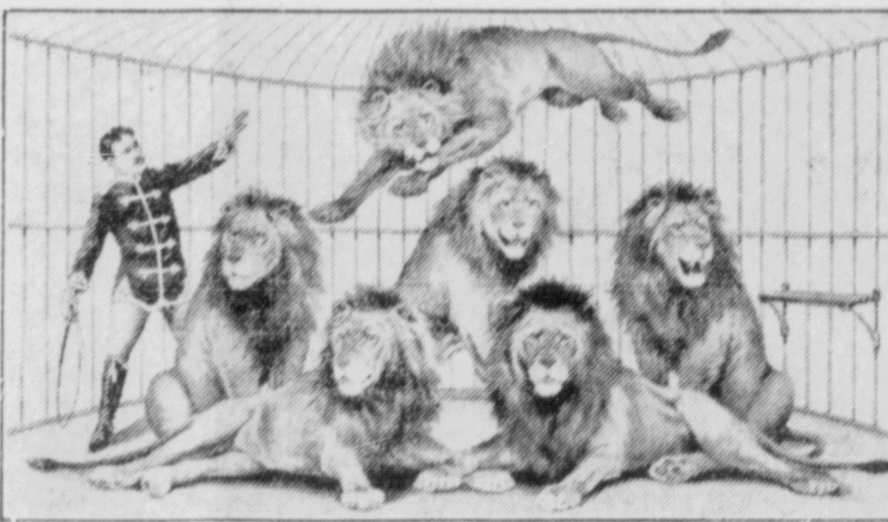

The Dniester river forms the southern defensive line of the Russian forces guarding Lemberg. It is easily protected and the Russians prevented the Austrians from securing a lodgement on the northern bank during the Galician fighting last spring and winter.

Throughout Gen. von Mackensen's drive across western Galicia, the southern German army was also held in check by the Slavs along the Dniester. The present crossing is the first one the Teutonic allies have been able to win, and is a more serious threat against the safety of Lemberg than was the fall of Premysl.

The district between the Dniester and Lemberg is a plain and is admirably served by a strategic railway system. It is a more favorable military approach to the Galician capital than is the terrain eastward from Premysl. If the Germans can maintain their crossing they will compel the Russians to fight on two fronts, facing westward towards Premysl and southward toward the Dniester, while the Austro-German lines will form an ever lengthening arc of a circle. The Teutonic strategy will have as its objective the gradual squeezing of the Slavs fronts until a retreat beyond Lemberg will be necessary before Lemberg itself is entirely surrounded. This maneuver may be conducted very rapidly or it may be delayed. This issue depends on the Slavic supply of ammunition.

The disposition of the Austro-Germans indicates an effort is being made to leave open only the northern and northeastern roads for a Russian retreat.

The disposition of the Austro-Germans indicates an effort is being made to leave open only the northern and northeastern roads for a Russian retreat.

Wonderful Performing Lions

There are some wonderful lions perform feats that would illustrate the amazing strength and agility of these beasts. During the performance of the Sparks shows a group of these monster animals will be turned loose in a great steel enclosure in full view of the audience. Herr Brunner will enter this enclosure, unarmed, and put these lions through some astonishing performances. It is the most thrilling act of the kind ever seen and will never be forgotten by the beholder. Like every other act and feature presented with the Sparks shows it is far away from and superior to anything of the kind ever seen before. There are numerous other trained animal acts in which tigers, leopards, hyenas, tremendous elephants, etc., will obey the commands of their fearless masters.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS

To the Charter of the City of Brainerd

TO THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BRAINERD:

The Brainerd Charter commission propose the amendments to the Charter of the City of Brainerd which are hereto attached.

Dated this 25th day of May, 1915.

A. J. HALSTED,

President.

GEORGE D. LABAR,

H. F. MICHAEL,

C. H. PAINE,

N. W. BETZOLD,

CARL ZAPFEE,

RICHARD ELSE,

ERICK KRONBERG,

WERNER JHEMSTEAD,

JUDD WRIGHT,

HENRY I. COHEN,

Secretary.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CHARTER OF THE CITY OF BRAINERD

That Section 51 of Chapter Three of the Charter of the City of Brainerd be amended to read as follows:

After the making of the reports provided for in the last section the city council shall levy such tax on all property real and personal within said city, except such as may be exempt by the laws of this state as it shall deem necessary, in addition to the other revenues of the city as reported as aforesaid, to defray the current general expenses of the city for the then fiscal year; but no such taxes for such current expenses nor for any of the purposes mentioned in section fifty-four of this charter, nor for park purposes or public library purposes or for a revolving fund, shall in the aggregate exceed twelve and one half mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation of the property in the city.

That Section 119 of Chapter Eight be amended to read as follows:

The city council shall have power to levy, assess and collect against all the assessable property of the city such taxes as are necessary to provide municipal funds for the city and the various departments thereof as is provided by this charter or by the general laws of the State of Minnesota, but the aggregate levy and assessment shall not in any one year exceed twelve and one-half mills on the dollar, and any levy and assessment in excess thereof, shall be void as to such excess; and in case the aggregate assessment is excessive as above provided the city council shall have power to reconsider and annul enough of such levy and assessment as is necessary to reduce the same to the limit above specified, but such reduction shall be so made if possible as not to affect the levy and assessment for general current funds or for the payment of interest on the bonded indebtedness. May 26—June 2-9-16.

Worthy Teacher is Trouble.

Some people, because of their own happiness, feel moved to help others. But more people, out of their sorrow, learn to minister to those who need love and kindness. There is no larger and deeper of the life like that unselfish guest, Trouble, who carries rich gifts under his black cloak.—Great Thoughts.

Don't Buy

That Spring or Summer Suit

Until you have seen those Special Suiting we are selling at less than "Reasonable Prices"

ALL NEW STOCK--ALL NEW STYLES

A Large Assortment to Choose From at

$17.00 and Up

Satisfaction and Fit Guaranteed or Your Money Back. To Please You Pleases Us. Don't Overlook Our Cleaning and Pressing Depts. For Ladies and Gents.

NATIONAL WOOLEN MILLS

608 Laurel St. Telephone 581. Brainerd, Minn.

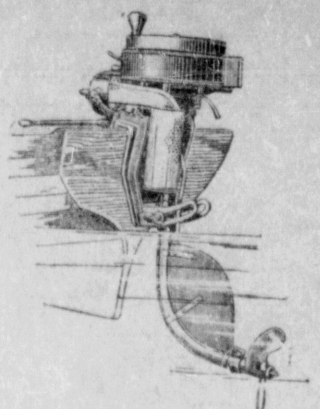

LOST HIM!

The Biggest Fish You Ever Saw. The — broke and he got away — — — —

BUY YOUR FISHING TACKLE AT

WHITE BROS.

Then You Can Bring Home The Big One — — — —

THE GRAY GEARLESS DETACHABLE BOATMOTOR

Complete Ready to Run $55

Bore, 3 in.; stroke, 2 1/2 in.; weight, 50 lbs

WHY THE GRAY GEARLESS?

It's Mechanically Better!

The Flexible Steel Shaft—allows lighter construction—no Bevel Gears. Is break—wear or consume power. More power at the wheel—cleaner run for the water—no big hub to interfere with proper action of wheel. More Speed.

The Flexible Steel Shaft is the strongest thing on the outfit and the hardest thing to wear out. We will guarantee the shaft to drive 7 H. P. Select the Gray Gearless for your boat and you will get more power, less weight, fewer parts, longer life, easier steering and a greater boat speed than is possible with any other detachable boat motor.

With all these advantages the price is less than asked for other high grade outfits.

Ask for Special Circular

ELMER FORSBERG

BRAINERD, MINN.

Local Agent

DEEDS, NOT WORDS

Brainerd People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Brainerd kidney sufferers,

Have made their local reputation.

Proof lies in the testimony of Brainerd people.

Mrs. R. Abear, W. Main St., W. Brainerd, Minn., says: "One of our family had kidney complaint badly last winter and missed two weeks from school. This one's back ached and was so sore and lame that she wasn't able to get around. We gave her Doan's Kidney Pills and she got so much better that she was able to go back to school. Four years ago, I suffered from hard, dull pains in my back, together with rheumatic twinges. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, that I got at H. P. Dunn's Drug Store and they relieved all the ailments."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Abear had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Take the new M. & L. Sunday train and spend your week end at the Pullman Club, Merrifield. Good fishing, boating and bathing. Meals, boats, etc., at reasonable rates.

614-1214

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

By Ingersoll & Wieland

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One Month—Forty Cents
One Year, strictly in advance Four Dollars

Office in Dispatch Building on 6th St.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1915.

STATE AUTOMOBILE LAWS

The following are the laws governing the driving of automobiles in the state, and in language that can admit of no misinterpretation:

- The state law requires that all motor vehicles have state licenses attached.
- That no party under sixteen years of age may operate a motor car.
- That every car must be provided with adequate brakes, horn or signaling device.
- That from one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise two lights must be displayed from the front of the car and one from rear. Rear light to show on license number.
- No car is permitted to remain standing on a public highway with the motor running unattended.
- That every vehicle shall use a muffler on exhaust, which shall not be operated within the city limits, or on any road when passing a horse.
- Speed at all times shall be reasonable, so as not to endanger life or property.
- Speed in residence part of city not to exceed fifteen miles an hour.
- Speed in business district not to exceed ten miles an hour.
- In case of accident, driver of car shall give his name and number of car license to any proper person requesting same.
- Speed in turning corners not to exceed six miles an hour.
- No person is permitted to operate a motor vehicle when in an intoxicated condition.
- Regular road rules shall govern location.
- Persons operating a vehicle should at all times keep to the right of center of road and pass vehicle moving in opposite direction, vehicle on overtaking shall pass to left side of person overtaken and person overtaken shall turn to right, so as to give one-half of the road.
- The operator of a motor vehicle on approaching or passing any animal which is frightened shall if necessary stop motor and allow animal to pass.
- At intersections of public highway, vehicle shall keep to the right of the intersection of center.

HOW "TIZ" GLADDENS TIRED, ACHING FEET

Don't Stay Footsick! Don't Have Sore Puffed-up, Sweaty, Calloused Feet or Burning Corns

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, bad-smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ".

"TIZ" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "TIZ" is magical; "TIZ" is grand; "TIZ" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired. Think of it, no more foot misery; no more burning corns, callouses or bunions. Get a 25 cent box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Get a whole year's foot relief for only 25 cents. Think of it!

DEEPLY REGRETS HIS CONCLUSION

Text of Secretary Bryan's Letter of Resignation.

DISAGREES WITH PRESIDENT

Nebraskan Says He Cannot Join in German Note Without Violating What He Deems an Obligation to His Country—President's Reply Expresses Sorrow in Accepting the Resignation.

Washington, June 9.—"It is with sincere regret that I have reached the conclusion that I should return to you the commission of secretary of state with which you honored me at the beginning of your administration. Obedient to your sense of duty and actuated by the highest motives you have prepared for transmission to the German government a note in which I cannot join without violating what I deem to be an obligation to my country and the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of your cabinet would be as unfair to you as it would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war."

"I therefore respectfully tender my resignation to take effect when the note is sent, unless you prefer an earlier hour. Alike desirous of reaching a peaceful solution of the problems arising out of the use of submarines against merchantmen we find ourselves differing irreconcilably as to the methods which should be employed."

"It falls to your lot to speak officially for the nation. I consider it to be none the less my duty to endeavor as a private citizen to promote the end which you have in view by means which you do not feel at liberty to use."

"In severing the intimate and pleasant relations which have existed between us during the past two years permit me to acknowledge the profound satisfaction it has given me to be associated with you in the important work which has come before the state department and to thank you for the courtesies extended."

"With the heartiest good wishes for your personal welfare and for the success of your administration I am, my dear Mr. President, very truly yours, W. J. BRYAN."

Wilson Accepts With Regrets.

"I accept your resignation only because you insist upon its acceptance and I accept it with much more than deep regret, with a feeling of personal sorrow."

"Our two years of close association have been very delightful to me. Our judgments have accorded in practically every matter of official duty and of public policy until now; your support of the work and purposes of the administration has been generous and loyal beyond praise; your devotion to the duties of your great office and your eagerness to take advantage of every great opportunity for service it offered has been an example to the rest of us."

"You have earned our affectionate admiration and friendship and even now we are not separated in the object we seek, but only in the method by which we seek it."

"It is for these reasons my feeling about your retirement from the secretaryship of state goes so much deeper than regret. I sincerely deplore it. Our objects are the same and we ought to pursue them together."

"I yield to your desire only because I must and wish to bid you goodspeed in the parting. We shall continue to work for the same causes even when we do not work in the same way. With affectionate regard, sincerely yours, WOODROW WILSON."

WILSON SHOWS GRIEF AT ACTION OF BRYAN.

Washington, June 9.—President Wilson by his every word and act showed his deep feeling over Secretary Bryan's decision to resign from the cabinet.

He accepted the resignation with greatest reluctance and only after he had become firmly convinced that he and the secretary were unalterably apart on the kind of note to be sent to Germany.

DESTROY TWO AEROPLANES

General French Reports Activity Along British Front.

London, June 9.—Field Marshal Sir John French, in a report on the fighting along the western line, says: "On the sixth, in front of the Plogsteert wood, we successfully exploded a mine under the German trenches, destroying thirty yards of the parapet."

"We have brought down two German aeroplanes, one opposite our right, by gunfire, and the other in the neighborhood of Ypres as the result of an engagement in the air with one of our aeroplanes."

Dardanelles and Bosphorus Impregnable

By HENRY WOOD,

United Press Staff Correspondent
Copyright 1915, by United Press
Copyright in Great Britain

Constantinople, June 9.—via Berlin, the Hague and London.—"The Dardanelles today are impregnable as Gibraltar—more impassable than at any previous time. Sedd-ul-Bahr, which was destroyed by the allied fleet, consisted merely of an out-of-date fortress, which answered in no way to the exigencies of modern warfare and were merely nominal obstacles to the forcing of the straits. In the meantime their places have been taken by a complete system of most modern defenses. We had ample time to install these; they have been constructed along the most advanced lines for resisting every possible arm of modern warfare. The straits today are guarded as never before. If they can be forced—which I doubt—it will only be at the cost of a sacrifice that would only be justified if their passage constitutes the one supreme end of the entire war."

"Meantime, by the help of God Almighty, we shall let no one past them."

The man who addressed me, was Enver Pasha, Turkish minister of war, vice generalissimo of the Ottoman army and navy—33 years of age, the youngest man who has ever attained that position. He spoke with an energy and decision that gave indication of some of the qualities which elevated him to his exalted post.

Enver Pasha received me at the general headquarters, at Stamboul, where constantly surrounded by an immense staff of officers he works day and night.

"From the side of the Bosphorus we are equally defended," the minister of war declared. "Entirely aside from the new system of defenses installed there since the present attack began we have at our disposal an even greater and surer means of defense in our submarine fleet, whose efficiency has already been demonstrated in the sinking of a Russian flagship. A better defense from Black sea attacks could not be provided than the presence of these submarines. They destroy all hopes by Russia ever of effectively landing troops on the coast north of Constantinople. Transports would be our coast. The submarines are equally efficacious in rendering impossible any naval action by the Russian fleet against the fortifications of the Bosphorus."

"We feel our position in Constantinople can be considered absolutely unapproachable. The city will, therefore continue in the future as in the past, the glorious capital of the Ottoman empire."

Remembering it was the reputation he won for himself while in charge of the entire Turkish operations in Tripoli against the Italian occupation which led to his present position I asked Enver Pasha what effect Italy's intervention would have on the final outcome of the war.

"Italy's participation cannot be considered an element," said his excellency. "Italy never has been victorious even against much smaller foes. There is not much reason to believe that against the much superior military organizations of Germany and Austria she will experience any radical change of fortune. Of the actual value of the Italian army, I have personal experience to be able to judge. Where only a handful of Turkish soldiers, who were entirely off from supplies, arms and ammunition, we were able with the help of native Arabs, successfully to oppose the Italian occupation we were able to maintain then was a mere bagatelle to what Italy will face from her present enemies."

How might Turkey's position in the present war be defined? I asked.

The war minister smiled before replying: "If I am permitted to borrow an expression from our enemies our position may be defined as being the same as theirs. The allies insist the present war is for the purpose of re-establishing the countries of Europe on the basis of nationality of the people, with complete free and independent existence for each. That is what we are fighting for too."

When Turkey last September abolished the capitulations which had been imposed on her for years in the past, by the very powers who say they are now fighting to establish independent government for each people, we for the first time in years were in complete control of the administration of our own affairs and of our own government. It is as much for that independence as for continuing and freedom that we are fighting and shall continue to fight to the end."

"We want the Turkish empire for

"FOR GOODNESS SAKE"

Get a GOLD BAR Button

During carnival week your grocers will distribute

1000 GOLD BAR BUTTONS

Each button is numbered and there are forty duplicate numbers. Nobody knows what they are. Locate the party wearing a duplicate GOLD BAR BUTTON with your number---present both buttons to your dealer who will give you a

50 POUND SACK OF GOLD BAR FLOUR

or $1.00 in Cash

"For GOODNESS Sake"

GET A BUTTON---GET BUSY

And win a prize---with our compliments.

Little Falls Milling Company

the Turks without interference from outside powers—that is our idea of independence."

"The Turkish soldier of today," I asked, "how has he fought against the soldiers of the three leading powers?"

His excellency glowed with enthusiasm.

"Our soldier of today," he said, "has lived up to all the glorious traditions of the past. He has shown that there is absolutely no deterioration, moral or physical in either our soldiers or our people. Our soldier is willingly making sacrifice of his empire. It is this demonstration of our inherent qualities as a race that entitles us among other races of the world to an independent existence—without foreign interference."

"Our soldier today is fighting like a lion, just as he has always fought. He will continue to fight that way to the end if need because of these qualities he possesses."

"We feel certain the position of Turkey when the war ends will be even more firmly established than ever before."

FORBEARANCE.

No one thing does human life more need than a kind consideration of the faults of others. Every one sins; every one therefore needs forbearance. Our own imperfections should teach us to be merciful to others.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Snappy Retort.

The occupant of a seat on the train was disturbed by the struggles of an elderly man who tried to place a large bundle on the rack overhead.

"That rack is only for light articles," protested the annoyed one.

"Then why don't you put your head on it?" was the snappy retort.—Boston Transcript.

Why He Got Up.

It was only about noonday, but the commuter yawned. He yawned heavily two or three times.

"Got up at 6 o'clock," he explained. "I had to catch my train. When my wife waked me I said to her: 'Six o'clock! The chickens haven't begun to crow yet, have they? Why must I get up before the chickens do, I'd like to know?'"

"I don't know," she said, "unless it's because you're no chicken."—New York Press.

Origin of the Sun Flag.

The origin of the emblem of the sun as the Japanese national symbol dates back to time immemorial. The first record of its use on land is that of a famous war lord of the eleventh century; again in the fifteenth century the emblem was adopted by the feudal lords and warriors. The connection of the emblem with the navy is also deep rooted, having had local usage as early as 110 A. D. and a more extended field in 1810. The official adoption of the sun flag to represent the nation took place in 1810.—Bulletin of the Japan Society.

Downward Revision.

Two Minutes After the Exam.—Aw, that was a cinch. I crashed that easy! Right between the eyes!

One Day After the Exam.—Of course there were a couple of little things I didn't get quite right.

Two Days After the Exam.—Say, I think I got two questions all wrong.

Three Days After the Exam.—Pass it? Well, I should say not. I flunked it cold.—Yale Record.

Conscience is the highest of all courts.—Victor Hugo.

Glad to Play a Losing Game.

"I shrink from the ordeal," she said, but there was a note of triumph in her voice.

The lady was dieting and exercising to reduce her flesh, and the scales had just shown that she had sloughed off thirty pounds.—Judge.

Resolve to wait in weakness and to walk in power.—Charlotte Stetson.

Twin Resentments.

She—If you loved me as you once did you would not make a row about the price of my new hat. He—If you loved me as you once did you would not wear a contraption that looks like a cross between an old fashioned flour sifter and little Willie's kite. —Richmond Times-Dispatch.

His Unprejudiced Opinion.

"Which side of the house do you think the baby resembles most?" proudly asked young Popjoy.

"Well—h'm," answered Smith; "I can't see that he looks so very much like the side of a house."—Woman's Home Companion.

Remarkable Memories.

Thomas Fuller could write verbatim another man's sermon after hearing it only once, says the London Chronicle, and could do the same with as many as 500 words in an unknown tongue after hearing them twice, which reminds one also of "Memory" Thompson, who, among other remarkable feats, could repeat from memory the name of every shop in the Strand in proper order.

Butler and Bishop.

A former bishop of Bath and Wells loved to impress on his ordination candidates the importance of a thorough study of the "Analogy" of Bishop Butler. "Goodby, my dear young friend," he once said in taking leave of a student at the palace door and then earnestly added, "Whatever you do, don't forget the Butler." "Oh, my lord, I haven't," stammered out the youth. "I have just given him half a crown."—T. P.'s London Weekly.

Tomorrow will be like today. Life wastes itself while we are preparing to live.—Emerson.

Eternal Curiosity.

"So you think all public entertainments should be censored?" "Yes, and I'd like to be one of the censors."

"What for?" "So as to be sure of not missing anything."—Washington Star.

Time For Shade Trees

Now is the time to have your shade trees set out. Trees may be ordered from, and information asked of,

WM. THOMAS

1003 7th St. S. Telephone 494-J

Cuyuna Range Plumbing & Heating Co.

Walker Block, Basement
Corner 7th and Laurel

HENRY BLACKWOOD, Manager

Jobbing Properly Attended To
We are prepared to furnish bathroom bowls, tubs, etc., at the lowest market figures. We can supply anything in this line for the bath, the kitchen or the laundry. Up to date service.

Farmer's Produce Co.

In New Location
Inspection Invited

622 Laurel St., Brainerd, Minn.

THOSE WHO KNOW

Buy their Oil and Gasoline from the

BRAINERD OIL CO.

A. E. Jones, Manager

ALL KINDS OF OIL

Phone 525-L Brainerd, Minn.

"Live and Let Live"

Penn Mutual Life Ins. Co.

M. E. CARLSON

LIFE INSURANCE MY SPECIALTY
Brainerd, Minnesota

THE BRAINERD DAILY DISPATCH

By Ingersoll & Wieland

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One Month.....Forty Cents

One Year, strictly in advance Four Dollars

Office in Dispatch Building on 5th St.

Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1915.

STATE AUTOMOBILE LAWS

The following are the laws governing the driving of automobiles in the state, and in language that can admit of no misinterpretation:

The state law requires that all motor vehicles have state licenses attached.

That no party under sixteen years of age may operate a motor car.

That every car must be provided with adequate brakes, horn or signaling device.

That from one hour after sunset to one hour before sunrise two lights must be displayed from the front of the car and one from rear. Rear light to show on license number.

No car is permitted to remain standing on a public highway with the motor running unattended.

That every vehicle shall use a muffler on exhaust, which shall not be operated within the city limits, or on any road when passing a horse.

Speed at all times shall be reasonable, so as not to endanger life or property.

Speed in residence part of city not to exceed fifteen miles an hour.

Speed in business district not to exceed ten miles an hour.

In case of accident, driver of car shall give his name and number of car license to any proper person requesting same.

Speed in turning corners not to exceed six miles an hour.

No person is permitted to operate a motor vehicle when in an intoxicated condition.

Regular road rules shall govern location.

Persons operating a vehicle should at all times keep to the right of center of road and pass vehicle moving in opposite direction, vehicle on overtaking shall pass to left side of person overtaken and person overtaken shall turn to right, so as to give one-half of the road.

The operator of a motor vehicle on approaching or passing any animal which is frightened shall if necessary stop motor and allow animal to pass.

At intersections of public highway, vehicle shall keep to the right of the intersection of center.

HOW "TIZ" GLADDENS

TIRED, ACHING FEET

Don't Stay Footsick! Don't Have Sore Puffed-up, Sweaty, Calloused Feet or Burning Corns

"TIZ" makes my feet just dance."

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet; no more swollen, bad-smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ".

"TIZ" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "TIZ" is magical; "TIZ" is grand; "TIZ" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired. Think of it, no more foot misery; no more burning corns, callouses or bunions.

Get a 25 cent box at any drug store or department store and get instant relief. Get a whole year's foot relief for only 25 cents. Think of it!

DEEPLY REGRETS HIS CONCLUSION

Text of Secretary Bryan's Letter of Resignation.

DISAGREES WITH PRESIDENT

Nebraskan Says He Cannot Join in German Note Without Violating What He Deems an Obligation to His Country—President's Reply Expresses Sorrow in Accepting the Resignation.

Washington, June 9.—"It is with sincere regret that I have reached the conclusion that I should return to you the commission of secretary of state with which you honored me at the beginning of your administration. Obedient to your sense of duty and actuated by the highest motives you have prepared for transmission to the German government a note in which I cannot join without violating what I deem to be an obligation to my country and the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of your cabinet would be as unfair to you as it would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war.

"I therefore respectfully tender my resignation to take effect when the note is sent, unless you prefer an earlier hour. Allice desirous of reaching a peaceful solution of the problems arising out of the use of submarines against merchantmen we find ourselves differing irreconcilably as to the methods which should be employed.

"It falls to your lot to speak officially for the nation. I consider it to be none the less my duty to endeavor as a private citizen to promote the end which you have in view by means which you do not feel at liberty to use.

"In severing the intimate and pleasant relations which have existed between us during the past two years permit me to acknowledge the profound satisfaction it has given me to be associated with you in the important work which has come before the state department and to thank you for the courtesies extended.

"With the heartiest good wishes for your personal welfare and for the success of your administration I am, my dear Mr. President, very truly yours, W. J. BRYAN."

Wilson Accepts With Regrets.

"I accept your resignation only because you insist upon its acceptance and I accept it with much more than deep regret, with a feeling of personal sorrow.

"Our two years of close association have been very delightful to me. Our judgments have accorded in practically every matter of official duty and of public policy until now; your support of the work and purposes of the administration has been generous and loyal beyond praise; your devotion to the duties of your great office and your eagerness to take advantage of every great opportunity for service it offered has been an example to the rest of us.

"You have earned our affectionate admiration and friendship and even now we are not separated in the object we seek, but only in the method by which we seek it.

"It is for these reasons my feeling about your retirement from the secretaryship of state goes so much deeper than regret. I sincerely deplore it. Our objects are the same and we ought to pursue them together.

"I yield to your desire only because I must and wish to bid you godspeed in the parting. We shall continue to work for the same causes even when we do not work in the same way. With affectionate regard, sincerely yours, WOODROW WILSON."

WILSON SHOWS GRIEF AT ACTION OF BRYAN.

Washington, June 9.—President Wilson by his every word and act showed his deep feeling over Secretary Bryan's decision to resign from the cabinet.

He accepted the resignation with greatest reluctance and only after he had become firmly convinced that he and the secretary were unalterably apart on the kind of note to be sent to Germany.

DESTROY TWO AEROPLANES

General French Reports Activity Along British Front.

London, June 9.—Field Marshal Sir John French, in a report on the fighting along the western line, says:

"On the sixth, in front of the Plogsteert wood, we successfully exploded a mine under the German trenches, destroying thirty yards of the parapet.

"We have brought down two German aeroplanes, one opposite our right, by gunfire, and the other in the neighborhood of Ypres as the result of an engagement in the air with one of our aeroplanes."

Dardanelles and Bosphorus Impregnable

By HENRY WOOD,

—United Press Staff Correspondent
Copyright 1915, by United Press
Copyright in Great Britain

Constantinople, June 5.—via Berlin, the Hague and London—"The Dardanelles today are impregnable as Gibraltar—more impassable than at any previous time. Sedd-ul-Bahr, which was destroyed by the allied fleet, consisted merely of an out-of-date fortress, which answered in no way to the exigencies of modern warfare and were merely nominal obstacles to the forcing of the straits. In the meantime their places have been taken by a complete system of most modern defenses. We had ample time to install these; they have been constructed along the most advanced lines for resisting every possible arm of modern warfare. The straits today are guarded as never before. If they can be forced—which I doubt—it will only be at the cost of a sacrifice that would only be justified if their passage constitutes the one supreme end of the entire war.

"Meantime, by the help of God Almighty, we shall let no one pass them."

The man who addressed me was Enver Pasha, Turkish minister of war, vice generalissimo of the Ottoman army and navy—33 years of age, the youngest man who has ever attained that position. He spoke with an energy and decision that gave indication of some of the qualities which elevated him to his exalted post.

Enver Pasha received me at the general headquarters, at Stamboul, where constantly surrounded by an immense staff of officers he works day and night.

"From the side of the Bosphorus we are equally defended," the minister of war declared. "Entirely aside from the new system of defenses installed there since the present attack began we have at our disposal an even greater and surer means of defense in our submarine fleet, whose efficiency has already been demonstrated in the sinking of a Russian flagship. A better defense from Black sea attacks could not be provided than the presence of these submarines. They destroy all hopes by Russia ever of effectively landing troops on the coast north of Constantinople before they could approach the straits. Transports would be our coast. The submarines are equally efficacious in rendering impossible any naval action by the Russian fleet against the fortifications of the Bosphorus.

"We feel our position in Constantinople can be considered absolutely unapproachable. The city will, therefore continue in the future as in the past, the glorious capital of the Ottoman empire."

Remembering it was the reputation he won for himself while in charge of the entire Turkish operations in Tripoli against the Italian occupation which led to his present position I asked Enver Pasha what effect Italy's intervention would have on the final outcome of the war.

"Italy's participation cannot be considered an element," said his excellency. "Italy never has been victorious even against much smaller foes. There is not much reason to believe that against the much superior military organizations of Germany and Austria she will experience any radical change of fortune. Of the actual value of the Italian army, I have personal experience to be able to judge. Where only a handful of Turkish soldiers, who were entirely off from supplies, arms and ammunition, we were able with the help of native Arabs, successfully to oppose the Italian occupation we were able to maintain then was a mere bagatelle to what Italy will face from her present enemies."

How might Turkey's position in the present war be defined? I asked.

The war minister smiled before replying: "If I am permitted to borrow an expression from our enemies our position may be defined as being the same as theirs. The allies insist the present war is for the purpose of re-establishing the countries of Europe on the basis of nationality of the people, with complete free and independent existence for each. That is what we are fighting for too.

When Turkey last September abolished the capitulations which had been imposed on her for years in the past, by the very powers who say they are now fighting to establish independent government for each people, we for the first time in years were in complete control of the administration of our own affairs and of our own government. It is as much for that independence as for continued freedom that we are fighting and shall continue to fight to the end."

"We want the Turkish empire for

"FOR GOODNESS SAKE"

Get a GOLD BAR Button

During carnival week your grocers will distribute

1000 GOLD BAR BUTTONS

Each button is numbered and there are forty duplicate numbers. Nobody knows what they are. Locate the party wearing a duplicate GOLD BAR BUTTON with your number---present both buttons to your dealer who will give you a

50 POUND SACK OF GOLD BAR FLOUR or $1.00 in Cash

"For GOODNESS Sake" GET A BUTTON---GET BUSY

And win a prize---with our compliments.

Little Falls Milling Company

the Turks without interference from outside powers—that is our idea of independence."

"The Turkish soldier of today," I asked, "how has he fought against the soldiers of the three leading powers?"

His excellency glowed with enthusiasm.

"Our soldier of today," he said, "has lived up to all the glorious traditions of the past. He has shown that there is absolutely no deterioration, moral or physical in either our soldiers or our people. Our soldier is willingly making sacrifice of his empire. It is this demonstration of our inherent qualities as a race that entitles us among other races of the world to an independent existence—without foreign interference."

"Our soldier today is fighting like a lion, just as he has always fought. He will continue to fight that way to the end if need because of these qualities he possesses."

"We feel certain the position of Turkey when the war ends will be even more firmly established than ever before."

FORBEARANCE.

No one thing does human life more need than a kind consideration of the faults of others. Every one sins; every one therefore needs forbearance. Our own imperfections should teach us to be merciful to others.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Snappy Retort.

The occupant of a seat on the train was disturbed by the struggles of an elderly man who tried to place a large bundle on the rack overhead.

"That rack is only for light articles," protested the annoyed one.

"Then why don't you put your head on it?" was the snappy retort.—Boston Transcript.

Why He Got Up.

It was only about noonday, but the commuter yawned. He yawned heavily two or three times.

"Got up at 6 o'clock," he explained. "Had to catch my train. When my wife waked me I said to her: 'Six o'clock! The chickens haven't begun to crow yet, have they? Why must I get up before the chickens do, I'd like to know!'"

"I don't know," she said, "unless it's because you're no chicken."—New York Press.

Origin of the Sun Flag.

The origin of the emblem of the sun as the Japanese national symbol dates back to time immemorial. The first record of its use on land is that of a famous war lord of the eleventh century; again in the fifteenth century the emblem was adopted by the feudal lords and warriors. The connection of the emblem with the navy is also deep rooted, having had local usage as early as 71 A. D. and a more extended field in 110 A. D. The official adoption of the sun flag to represent the nation took place in 1810.—Bulletin of the Japan Society.

Downward Revision.

Two Minutes After the Exam.—Aw, that was a cinch. I crashed that easy! Right between the eyes!

One Day After the Exam.—Of course there were a couple of little things I didn't get quite right.

Two Days After the Exam.—Say, I think I got two questions all wrong.

Three Days After the Exam.—Pass it? Well, I should say not. I flunked it cold.—Yale Record.

Conscience is the highest of all courts.—Victor Hugo.

Glad to Play a Losing Game.

"I shrink from the ordeal," she said, but there was a note of triumph in her voice.

The lady was dieting and exercising to reduce her flesh, and the scales had just shown that she had sloughed off thirty pounds.—Judge.

Resolve to wait in weakness and to walk in power.—Charlotte Stetson.

Twin Resentments.

She—If you loved me as you once did you would not make a row about the price of my new hat. He—If you loved me as you once did you would not wear a contraption that looks like a cross between an old fashioned flour sifter and little Willie's kite.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

His Unprejudiced Opinion.

"Which side of the house do you think the baby resembles most?" proudly asked young Popjoy.

"Well—h'm," answered Smith; "I can't see that he looks so very much like the side of a house."—Woman's Home Companion.

Remarkable Memories.

Thomas Fuller could write verbatim another man's sermon after hearing it only once, says the London Chronicle, and could do the same with as many as 500 words in an unknown tongue after hearing them twice, which reminds one also of "Memory" Thompson, who, among other remarkable feats, could repeat from memory the name of every shop in the Strand in proper order.

Butler and Bishop.

A former bishop of Bath and Wells loved to impress on his ordination candidates the importance of a thorough study of the "Analogy" of Bishop Butler. "Goodby, my dear young friend," he once said in taking leave of a student at the palace door and then earnestly added, "Whatever you do, don't forget the Butler." "Oh, my lord, I haven't," stammered out the youth, "I have just given him half a crown."—T. P.'s London Weekly.

Tomorrow will be like today. Life wastes itself while we are preparing to live.—Emerson.

Eternal Curiosity.

"So you think all public entertainments should be censored?"

"Yes, and I'd like to be one of the censors."

"What for?"

"So as to be sure of not missing anything."—Washington Star.

Time For Shade Trees

Now is the time to have your shade trees set out. Trees may be ordered from, and information asked of,

WM. THOMAS

1003 7th St. S. Telephone 494-J

Cuyuna Range Plumbing & Heating Co.

Walker Block, Basement
Corner 7th and Laurel

HENRY BLACKWOOD, Manager

Jobbing Properly Attended To
We are prepared to furnish bathroom bowls, tubs, etc., at the lowest market figures. We can supply anything in this line for the bath, the kitchen or the laundry. Up to date Service.

28111-m

Farmer's Produce Co.

In New Location

Inspection Invited

622 Laurel St., Brainerd, Minn.

THOSE WHO KNOW

Buy their Oil and Gasoline from the

BRAINERD OIL CO.

A. E. Jones, Manager

ALL KINDS OF OIL

Phone 525-L Brainerd, Minn.

"Live and Let Live"

Penn Mutual Life Ins. Co.

M. E. CARLSON

LIFE INSURANCE MY SPECIALTY

Brainerd, Minnesota

BAD WEATHER NO BAR TO CROWDS

Second Day at the Tom W. Allen Carnival Shows an Increasing Number of Visitors

DESCRIPTION OF ATTRACTIONS

The Lieut. Strout Carnival Band is Famed for its Fine Music, Concert Tonight

With lowering clouds and threatening rains the second night of the carnival opened with a surprisingly large crowd that were out to take in the many shows that are really worth patronage.

As one enters the city of fun after crossing the railroad tracks he sees the big Motor and Autodrome where in the riders of both motorcycles and motor cars nightly risk their lives with their dare-devil feats. Next he sees the great Parker Merry Go Round, a source of delight to the youngsters. As the sightseer goes on down Sixth street, he stops to look at the big search light above the "Trip to Mars," and can't resist the temptation to pay a visit to the mysteries within.

After leaving the "Trip to Mars" he is bewildered by the sudden blaze of light the sound of the air collapse and he is advised in a minute that he is confronting Billy Williams' "Mamie Show," the "Show Beautiful." "Mamie, the spectacular, is certainly well worth one's time and money. "Agansta" and Miss Alice Melville head an all star show. After being comfortably seated the curtain arises upon the first act. "Agansta" in her own interpretation of Hindoo dances possesses the same grace and technique as Ruth St. Dennis and Maud Adams. Next Miss Alice Melville in "Visions De Art," the "act beautiful." Miss Melville poses as such characters as Rebecca at the Well, The Rosary, Statue of Liberty and many others, creates boundless applause. The "Dance of the Water Nymphs," the "Dance of a Summer's Day" and lastly "The Cascades." Truly this is a show worth seeing.

Who is next door? Why it's our old friends, Jimmie Woods and Charley Washburn with their famous dog and pony show and other attractions. Here is where "Maud" the unriddable mule resides and the management offers a cash prize to any local man succeeding in riding her. Happy Hooligan, the "Monk That Has Made a Man of Himself," with many other monkeys such as Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, "Mutt and Jeff," "Tom and Jerry," and "Gloomy Gus" are a great delight to both young and old. Ponies galore well trained taking great pleasure in their work come nightly unto their share of applause. Boxing dogs, acrobatic dogs and dancing dogs are more than pleasing. Woods and Washburn have a dandy show.

The funny old Crazy House packs them in and it seems that all Brainerd wants to go crazy.

Going back on Main street one sees the longest line of business ever before seen on any Midway. It is B. F. Karr's gigantic Wonderland, thirty shows under one spread of canvas all for one price of admission. Here is the home of Divonia the water nymph, who actually eats, sleeps, reads and smokes entirely under water. While visiting the carnival one misses the treat of a life time if one fails to visit Divonia. Also here at Wonderland is the Man that Defies the Death Chair the Fat Girl the Living Skeleton the largest snake alive, glass blowers, trained goats, trained bears, monkeys, trained mice and many other big attractions too numerous to mention.

Without a doubt Wonderland is a Wonderland in reality. Thirty shows for one admission price. The Panama Canal, instructive and interesting, is certainly a rare treat. Dolly Lyons and her "Nomia" show are doing capacity business. Lyons has a great musical show. The girls are pretty, know how to dance, are sweet singers and know how to wear beautiful clothes.

Side by side with "Nomia" is the biggest attraction of them all, the Big Holland Hippodrome and Circus, acknowledged by all Brainerd as the big show. Enormous crowds attend each performance and the Holland Brothers are cheered and applauded to the echo with their sensational bareback riding. The other nine big acts are all big features. The Hollands are to be congratulated upon their great show.

Don't neglect a summer cold. A bronchial cough causes broken sleep and lowers your vitality. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound soothes and heals raw, inflamed membranes, stops tickling in throat and clears stuffy, wheezy breathing. Contains no opiates; children like it; good for all colds, coughs, croup and bronchial affections. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv.—mwf

ARE PREPARING FOR RECEPTION

Chamber of Commerce of Brainerd and the Range Towns to Provide a Program for

SENATORIAL PARTY, JUNE 19TH

Deerwood Committee Includes John A. Oberg, John McMannus and Charles G. Osterlund

The Brainerd Chamber of Commerce is preparing a program for the reception of the senatorial party and their friends, some 100 people, who will visit Brainerd June 19 on their tour of northern Minnesota. It is also planned to give them an automobile ride taking in the Cuyuna iron range.

Committees of three each of prominent citizens of Deerwood, Crosby, Ironton, Cuyuna and Riverton are meeting and figuring out an itinerary which will show the development of the Cuyuna range. In Deerwood the committee consists of County Commissioner John A. Oberg, John McMannus and Charles G. Osterlund.

BASEBALL REPORTS

South Long Lake 14, Daggett Brook 2; Tigers of Southeast Brainerd Beat Oak Lawn

Two games of breathless interest have been sent the Dispatch by special delivery and are reproduced herewith:

South Long Lake defeated Daggett Brook 14 to 2 on South Long Lake grounds. Batteries for Daggett Brook were Miller and Rouse and for South Long Lake Rassmussen and Peterson. A big crowd of fans attended the game.

The fan who sent in this report was so blazed excited he forgot to put in the final score. "Last Sunday the Tigers of Southeast Brainerd nosed out a victory over Oak Lawn in a fast 11 inning contest. It was one of the most exciting games ever seen in Oak Lawn. At the end of the ninth inning with the score 3 to 2 the rooting of the fans for both sides assumed deafening proportions. Oak Lawn wishes to thank the Tigers for the straight, gentlemanly game they put up. The batteries for Oak Lawn were Nelson and Cowles; for the Tigers, Sutherland, Long and Pickler."

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT

Lieut. E. D. Strout's Military Band to Play Program of Jerome H. Remick's Hits

Tonight at 7 o'clock Lieut. E. D. Strout and his military band will render the following program published by Jerome H. Remick & Co., of New York City. The Allen show band at all times features all late publications.

1. "Chinatown."
2. "Wrap Me in a Bundle"
3. "Come Over to Dover"
4. "On the 5:15"
5. "I want to Linger."
6. "Everybody Rag With Me."
7. "Over the Hills to Mary"

The carnival band is one of the best heard in this city. They play with a snap and precision that makes the feet of the crowd move.

FARMERS FORM A FEDERATION

Crow Wing County Federation of Farmers' Clubs Organized by Delegates at Court House

ELECTION OF OFFICERS HELD

D. C. Henderson, of Nisswa, Heads Organization—Next Meeting on July 16 at Bay Lake

The Crow Wing County Federation of Farmers' clubs has been organized by delegates from ten out of fourteen clubs of the county.

The election of officers was held, being President D. C. Henderson of Nisswa, vice president Richard Weatherbee of Crow Wing, secretary E. E. Taylor of Merrifield and treasurer Mrs. F. C. Peabody of Merrifield. Thirty representatives were present, unanimously in favor of the federation.

The next meeting of the federation will be held at the farmers picnic at Bay Lake July 16, when President Vincent of the University of Minnesota will address the assembly. Constitution and bylaws are soon to be adopted.

RAILWAY PICNIC

Shopmen Report That It is to be Held at Pequot and Not at Walker This Year

The Walker Picnic story to the effect that the shop picnic was to be held at Walker on June 19 appears to have been premature for railway men say the picnic is to be held at Pequot.

A delegation of Pequot men were in the city Monday holding a conference on picnic arrangements. In the meantime Crosby and Deerwood are making efforts to land the picnic and Deerwood has sent a committee, Gust Franson and Charles G. Osterlund to see about the picnic and Crosby, whose advantages will be set forth by E. G. Ingalls, is also on the scene.

(With so many bidders after the honor, the actual scene of the picnic may be in doubt, but there is no doubt about the date. All are agreed upon June 19.

I. W. Bouck to Get Diploma

I. W. Bouck has been pleasantly surprised by information from the Iowa State College, with which he severed connections as a student thirty years ago, that he is to receive a diploma in recognition of the four years' work which he did at that institution. Mr. Bouck worked his way through the four years' course at that place but was compelled by outside circumstances to quit college before taking two final examinations and did not at that time receive a diploma. But someone has undoubtedly been delving into the old records and arrived at the conclusion that he was and now is entitled to a diploma after a lapse of thirty-nine years, and so he is to be graduated this month with the degree of Bachelor of Science in recognition of his work there. Mr. Bouck is naturally much pleased over the result and the diploma will be highly prized by him. —Royalton Banner.

HEADS DEMOCRATIC FINANCE COMMITTEE

Frederick B. Lynch, Well Known to all Brainerd and Crow Wing Co. People, is Now

CHAIRMAN, IMPORTANT OFFICE

Is Also Member State Highway Commission of Minnesota, Can do Much for This County

Frederick B. Lynch, of St. Paul, who has a fine summer home at Gull lake and is known to all of Brainerd and Crow Wing county as simply Fred Lynch, has been elected to a position of great honor in the democratic party, chairman of the democratic finance committee. He succeeds A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, who has been appointed to the United States court of claims and who tendered his resignation. Mr. Lynch was designated by Chairman W. F. McCoombs of the national committee and his selection ratified by the other committeemen.

Members of the committee said that the meeting had no political significance.

The election of Mr. Lynch shows plainly that the west is being recognized to a great extent in the councils of the democratic party. It reflects honor on the state of Minnesota.

Mr. Lynch stands over six feet, is built like an athlete and possesses of a keen and analytical mind, is a successful business man and a politician of the constructive kind. Mr. Lynch never makes long, tireless speeches. He believes in action. In an interview he can compress more meaning in one or two words given as an answer than many men can in a whole column. He is a fisherman, a good shot and a man who delights to be around in the open. And by the way, Mr. Lynch does all his political fighting in the open and a defeat never phases him. He comes up smiling and never loses the good friendship of the other fellow.

He managed the John A. Johnson campaign for governor and had him fairly started on the road to the presidency when death cut short the noble life of the governor.

Mr. Lynch is a member of the state highway commission. He delights in good roads. To have a man of such accomplishments and holding such positions reside in Crow Wing county eight miles from Brainerd means much to the county and the city and Mr. Lynch can do much for us.

At the beginning of the present democratic administration many friends had Mr. Lynch cast for the position of secretary of the interior. Others had him slated for minister to Belgium. But he wanted no such honors and preferred to remain plain Fred Lynch.

There is no better man than Mr. Lynch to represent the west.

Star Route to be Discontinued

The Star Route from Pillager to Portview will be discontinued June 15th, and the patrons of Portview, living north of that postoffice will hereafter have the service of a rural delivery from Pequot. Those living between that place and this a distance of some 14 miles, will be forced to come to the postoffice at Pillager in the near future, unless a new office is established at Homebrook, the office being closed at that place some years ago. —Pillager Herald.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

St. Francis School Matinee at 2 O'clock, Evening Entertainment at 8 O'clock Tonight

The St. Francis school entertainment will be held at the Brainerd opera house this Wednesday, a matinee being given at 2 o'clock and the evening performance at 8 o'clock. A monstrous program has been prepared, marking the graduation of a class of eighteen in which Mildred O'Brien and Herman E. Koop received the highest marks in scholarship. It is Father J. J. O'Mahoney, always known as an eloquent speaker will deliver an address.

The pupils will be heard in a fine program of songs, recitations and plays.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and restoring nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall Family Pills for constipation.

Twenty Injured in Frisco Wreck

(By United Press)
Enid, Okla., June 9—Fifteen or twenty have been injured in a wreck on the Frisco. Two hand cars peddling at top speed for the scene of the wreck collided, and eight more were injured.

Frank Loses Appeal

(By United Press)
Atlanta, June 9—The supreme court has denied the appeal of Leo Frank for a new trial for the murder of Mary Phagan, of which he was convicted.

Accept Mayo Foundation

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, June 9—The board of regents of the University of Minnesota this afternoon voted to accept a six years' trial contract of the Mayo foundation.

LATEST WAR NEWS

LANSING IS ACTING SECRETARY

(By United Press)
Washington, June 9—Counselor Lansing, of the state department, becomes acting secretary when Bryan steps out of it was announced this afternoon, and assistant solicitor, Chandler Anderson of the department, will act temporarily as counselor. It is not thought that a permanent secretary will be named immediately. Speculation as to Mr. Bryan's successor embraces every possible prospect.

RUMORED DANIELS RESIGNED

(By United Press)
Washington, June 9—It is rumored that Secretary Daniels has also resigned. This is emphatically denied by Howard Banks his private secretary, and Secretary Daniels could not be found.

THINK NOTE MEANS WAR

(By United Press)
London, June 9—The newspapers this afternoon interpret Secretary of State Bryan's resignation as an indication that the President's rejoinder is so finely phrased that war with the United States and Germany will result.

BOMBARD TURKISH FORTS

(By United Press)
Athens, June 9th—The Anglo-French fleet has opened a heavy fire on the Turkish forts on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles.

BRYAN'S LAST APPEARANCE

(By United Press)
Washington, June 9—Secretary of State Bryan was at his desk as usual today, presumably the last time as premier of the cabinet.

GERMAN SUBMARINE SUNK

(By United Press)
London, June 9—A German submarine has been sunk by the British, six officers and twenty-one of the crew being captured.

To Sleep Well in Summer

Slight inflammation of the bronchial tubes causes a distressing cough and makes sleep impossible. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops that annoying tickling and relieves the racking, tiring, cough. Good for all coughs, colds, croup and bronchial affections. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv.—mwf

HUBERT

Mrs. J. B. Heald arrived from Boston the latter part of the week to visit relatives here for some time.

Z. B. Clarke of St. Paul spent several days at the Bohlke home last week.

Miss Olga Sovig left for Kintyne, N. D., Monday.

Mrs. L. L. Osborne and Mrs. C. Shaw of Mankato have arrived to spend the summer on Clark lake.

Oscar Hauff arrived from Marinette, Wis., Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lowrie and

Take a Victrola on your camping trip

A Victrola is looked upon as a regular part of a camping outfit nowadays.

It is always sure of a rousing welcome.

Its delightful music is one of the real joys of camp life.

Whether you are going camping or not, come in and get acquainted with the Victrola. We'll gladly play any music you wish to hear.

Victrolas $15 to $250. Victors $10 to $100.

"MICHAEL'S"

NEW GRAND

Is

Closed Until

JUNE 13th

Unless Notice

IS Otherwise

Given

children came out from Brainerd Tuesday to spend the summer at their cottage.

Ingolf Dillon, Alfred Dillon, Ralph Faulkner, John Olson, Gorman Nelson, Henry Lagerquist, Roy Anderson and Percy Carbine are camping near Clark lake.

Miss Lydia Knebel came down from Pequot Monday morning.

Miss Lula Fuller returned from Gilbert Monday night.

W. Linnemann came out from Brainerd Friday on business.

Mrs. W. P. Bantsch and daughter

Edith, came out from Brainerd Tuesday.

Mrs. H. L. Jones and son Harold, of Brainerd are spending a few days here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Webb and children spent Saturday and Sunday at their cottage on Clark lake.

Robert Maxwell returned from Walker Friday morning.

Donald Dally came down from La Porte Monday to work for his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Hale, of Minneapolis are spending a few days at Minnewawn Lodge.

GRAND OPENING

The Majestic Pool and Billiard Parlors Open Tomorrow

EVERYBODY CORDIALLY INVITED

A new amusement enterprize for Brainerd and vicinity will be open to the general public tomorrow, Thursday, June 10th. The Majestic is located at 622 Front street, near 7th and will be conducted in a strictly gentlemanly manner where Ladies can visit with their escorts and enjoy the grand new game of pocket billiards—now the range in the largest cities—eight new tables and equipment of the very latest styles will be in use and every convenience and service to the public will be connected with this new Majestic. The management promise a most reputable place of amusement and will do all possible for the elevation and cleanliness of this great parlor entertainment. No gambling of any nature will be permitted—Only young men over the age of 18 will be accepted as patrons and in every way we assure you a nice reputable place for yourself and friends to call and spend a sociable visit—Carnations free to the Ladies from 8 to 10 p. m. Thursday evening, June 10—

BAD WEATHER NO BAR TO CROWDS

Second Day at the Tom W. Allen Carnival Shows an Increasing Number of Visitors

DESCRIPTION OF ATTRACTIONS

The Lieut. Strout Carnival Band is Famed for its Fine Music, Concert Tonight

With lowering clouds and threatening rains the second night of the carnival opened with a surprisingly large crowd that were out to take in the many shows that are really worth patronage.

As one enters the city of fun after crossing the railroad tracks he sees the big Motor and Autodrome where-in the riders of both motorcycles and motor cars nightly risk their lives with their dare-devil feats. Next he sees the great Parker Merry Go Round, a source of delight to the youngsters. As the sightseer goes on down Sixth street, he stops to look at the big search light above the "Trip to Mars," and can't resist the temptation to pay a visit to the mysteries within.

After leaving the "Trip to Mars" he is bewildered by the sudden blaze of light the sound of the air calliope and he is advised in a minute that he is confronting Billy Williams' "Mamie Show," the "Show Beautiful," "Mamie, the spectacular, is certainly well worth one's time and money. "Agansta" and Miss Alice Melville had an all star show. After being comfortably seated the curtain arises upon the first act, "Agansta" in her own interpretation of Hindoo dances possesses the same grace and technique as Ruth St. Dennis and Maud Adams. Next Miss Alice Melville in "Visions De Art," the "act beautiful." Miss Melville poses as such characters as Rebecca at the Well, The Roseary, Statue of Liberty and many others, creates boundless applause. The "Dance of the Water Nymphs," the "Dance of a Summer's Day" and lastly "The Cascaders." Truly this is a show worth seeing.

Who is next door? Why it's our old friends, Jimmie Woods and Charley Washburn with their famous dog and pony show and other attractions. Here is where "Maud" the unrivaled mule rides and the management offers a cash prize to any local man succeeding in riding her. Happy Hooligan, the "Monk That Has Made a Man of Himself," with many other monkeys such as Mr. and Mrs. Murphy, "Mutt and Jeff," "Tom and Jerry," and "Gloomy Gus" are a great delight to both young and old. Ponies galore well trained taking great pleasure in their work come nightly unto their share of applause. Boxing dogs, acrobatic dogs and dancing dogs are more than pleasing. Woods and Washburn have a dandy show.

The funny old Crazy House packs them in and it seems that all Brainerd wants to go crazy.

Going back on Main street one sees the longest line of business ever before seen on any Midway. It is B. P. Karr's gigantic Wonderland, thirty shows under one spread of canvas all for one price of admission. Here is the home of Divonia the water nymph, who actually eats, sleeps, reads and smokes entirely under water. While visiting the carnival one misses the treat of a life time if one fails to visit Divonia. Also here at Wonderland is the Man that Defies the Death Chair the Fat Girl the Living Skeleton the largest snake alive, glass blowers, trained goats, trained bears, monkeys, trained mice and many other big attractions too numerous to mention.

Without a doubt Wonderland is a Wonderland in reality. Thirty shows for one admission price.

The Panama Canal, instructive and interesting, is certainly a rare treat. Dolly Lyons and her "Nomia" show are doing capacity business. Lyons has a great musical show. The girls are pretty, know how to dance, are sweet singers and know how to wear beautiful clothes.

Side by side with "Nomia" is the biggest attraction of them all, the Big Holland Hippodrome and Circus, acknowledged by all Brainerd as the big show. Enormous crowds attend each performance and the Holland Brothers are cheered and applauded to the echo with their sensational bareback riding. The other nine big acts are all big features. The Hollands are to be congratulated upon their great show.

ARE PREPARING FOR RECEPTION

Chamber of Commerce of Brainerd and the Range Towns to Provide a Program for

SENATORIAL PARTY, JUNE 19TH

Deerwood Committee Includes John A. Oberg, John McManus and Charles G. Osterlund

The Brainerd Chamber of Commerce is preparing a program for the reception of the senatorial party and their friends, some 100 people, who will visit Brainerd June 19 on their tour of northern Minnesota. It is also planned to give them an automobile ride taking in the Cuyuna iron range.

Committees of three each of prominent citizens of Deerwood, Crosby, Ironton, Cuyuna and Riverton are meeting and figuring out an itinerary which will show the development of the Cuyuna range. In Deerwood the committee consists of County Commissioner John A. Oberg, John McManus and Charles G. Osterlund.

BASEBALL REPORTS

South Long Lake 14, Daggett Brook 2; Tigers of Southeast Brainerd Beat Oak Lawn

Two games of breathless interest have been sent the Dispatch by special delivery and are reproduced herewith:

South Long Lake defeated Daggett Brook 14 to 2 on South Long Lake grounds. Batteries for Daggett Brook were Miller and Rause and for South Long Lake Rasmussen and Peterson. A big crowd of fans attended the game.

The fan who sent in this report was so blamed excited he forgot to put in the final score. "Last Sunday the Tigers of Southeast Brainerd nosed out a victory over Oak Lawn in a fast 11 inning contest. It was one of the most exciting games ever seen in Oak Lawn. At the end of the ninth inning with the score 3 to 3 the rooting of the fans for both sides assumed deafening proportions. Oak Lawn wishes to thank the Tigers for the straight, gentlemanly game they put up. The batteries for Oak Lawn were Nelson and Cowles; for the Tigers, Sutherland, Long and Pickler."

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT

Lieut. E. D. Strout's Military Band to Play Program of Jerome H. Remick's Hits

Tonight at 7 o'clock Lieut. E. D. Strout and his military band will render the following program published by Jerome H. Remick & Co., of New York City. The Allen show band at all times features all late publications.

1. "Chinatown."
2. "Wrap Me in a Bundle"
3. "Come Over to Dover"
4. "On the 5:15"
5. "I want to Linger."
6. "Everybody Rag With Me."
7. "Over the Hills to Mary"

The carnival band is one of the best heard in this city. They play with a snap and precision that makes the feet of the crowd move.

FARMERS FORM A FEDERATION

Crow Wing County Federation of Farmers' Clubs Organized by Delegates at Court House

ELECTION OF OFFICERS HELD

D. C. Henderson, of Nisswa, Heads Organization—Next Meeting on July 16 at Bay Lake

The Crow Wing County Federation of Farmers' clubs has been organized by delegates from ten out of fourteen clubs of the county.

The election of officers was held, being President D. C. Henderson of Nisswa, vice president Richard Weatherbee of Crow Wing, secretary E. E. Taylor of Merrifield and treasurer Mrs. F. C. Peabody of Merrifield. Thirty representatives were present, unanimously in favor of the federation.

The next meeting of the federation will be held at the farmers picnic at Bay Lake July 16 when President Vincent of the University of Minnesota will address the assembly. Constitution and bylaws are soon to be adopted.

RAILWAY PICNIC

Shopmen Report That It is to be Held at Pequot and Not at Walker This Year

The Walker Pilot story to the effect that the shop picnic was to be held at Walker on June 19 appears to have been premature for railway men say the picnic is to be held at Pequot.

A delegation of Pequot men were in the city Monday holding a conference on picnic arrangements. In the meantime Crosby and Deerwood are making efforts to land the picnic and Deerwood has sent a committee, Gust Franson and Charles G. Osterlund to see about the picnic and Crosby, whose advantages will be set forth by E. G. Ingalls, is also on the scene.

With so many bidders after the honor, the actual scene of the picnic may be in doubt, but there is no doubt about the date. All are agreed upon June 19.

I. W. Bouck to Get Diploma

I. W. Bouck has been pleasantly surprised by information from the Iowa State College, with which he severed connections as a student thirty years ago, that he is to receive a diploma in recognition of the four years' work which he did at that institution. Mr. Bouck worked his way through the four years' course at that place but was compelled by outside circumstances to quit college before taking two final examinations and did not at that time receive a diploma. But someone has undoubtedly been delving into the old records and arrived at the conclusion that he was and now is entitled to a diploma after a lapse of thirty-nine years, and so he is to be graduated this month with the degree of Bachelor of Science in recognition of his work there. Mr. Bouck is naturally much pleased over the result and the diploma will be highly prized by him. —Royalton Banner.

HEADS DEMOCRATIC FINANCE COMMITTEE

Frederick B. Lynch, Well Known to all Brainerd and Crow Wing Co. People, is Now

CHAIRMAN, IMPORTANT OFFICE

Is Also Member State Highway Commission of Minnesota, Can do Much for This County

Frederick B. Lynch, of St. Paul, who has a fine summer home at Gull lake and is known to all of Brainerd and Crow Wing county as simply Fred Lynch, has been elected to a position of great honor in the democratic party, chairman of the democratic finance committee. He succeeds A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania, who has been appointed to the United States court of claims and who tendered his resignation. Mr. Lynch was designated by Chairman W. F. McCoombs of the national committee and his selection ratified by the other committeemen.

Members of the committee said that the meeting had no political significance.

The election of Mr. Lynch shows plainly that the west is being recognized to a great extent in the councils of the democratic party. It reflects honor on the state of Minnesota.

Mr. Lynch stands over six feet, is built like an athlete and possesses of a keen and analytical mind, is a successful business man and a politician of the constructive kind. Mr. Lynch never makes long, tiresome speeches. He believes in action. In an interview he can compass more meaning in one or two words given as an answer than many men can in a whole column. He is a fisherman, a good shot and a man who delights to be around in the open. And by the way Mr. Lynch does all his political fighting in the open and a defeat never phases him. He comes up smiling and never loses the good friendship of the other fellow.

He managed the John A. Johnson campaign for governor and had him fairly started on the road to the presidency when death cut short the noble life of the governor.

Mr. Lynch is a member of the state highway commission. He delights in good roads. To have a man of such accomplishments and holding such positions reside in Crow Wing county eight miles from Brainerd means much to the county and the city and Mr. Lynch can do much for us.

At the beginning of the present democratic administration many friends had Mr. Lynch cast for the position of secretary of the interior. Others had him slated for minister to Belgium. But he wanted no such honors and preferred to remain plain Fred Lynch.

There is no better man than Mr. Lynch to represent the west.

Star Route to be Discontinued

The Star Route, from Pillager to Portview will be discontinued June 15th, and the postions of Portview, living north of that postoffice will hereafter have the service of a rural delivery from Pequot. Those living between that place and this a distance of some 14 miles, will be forced to come to the postoffice at Pillager in the near future, unless a new office is established at Homebrook, the office being closed at that place some years ago. —Pillager Herald.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT

St. Francis School Matinee at 2 O'clock, Evening Entertainment at 8 O'clock Tonight

The St. Francis school entertainment will be held at the Brainerd opera house this Wednesday, a matinee being given at 2 o'clock and the evening performance at 8 o'clock. A meritorious program has been prepared, marking the graduation of a class of eighteen in which Mildred O'Brien and Herman E. Koop received the highest marks in scholarship. Rev. Father J. J. O'Mahoney, always known as an eloquent speaker will deliver an address.

The pupils will be heard in a fine program of songs, recitations and plays.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving tone and strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Take Hall Family Pills for constipation.

Twenty Injured in Frisco Wreck

(By United Press)
Enid, Okla., June 9—Fifteen or twenty have been injured in a wreck on the Frisco. Two hand cars peddling at top speed for the scene of the wreck collided, and eight more were injured.

Frank Loses Appeal

(By United Press)
Atlanta, June 9—The supreme court has denied the appeal of Leo Frank for a new trial for the murder of Mary Phagan, of which he was convicted.

Accept Mayo Foundation

(By United Press)
Minneapolis, June 9—The board of regents of the University of Minnesota this afternoon voted to accept a six years' trial contract of the Mayo foundation.

LATEST WAR NEWS

LANSING IS ACTING SECRETARY

(By United Press)
Washington, June 9—Counsellor Lansing, of the state department, becomes acting secretary when Bryan steps out of it was announced this afternoon, and assistant solicitor, Chandler Anderson of the department, will act temporarily as counsellor. It is not thought that a permanent secretary will be named immediately. Speculation as to Mr. Bryan's successor embraces every possible prospect.

RUMORED DANIELS RESIGNED

(By United Press)
Washington, June 9—It is rumored that Secretary Daniels has also resigned. This is emphatically denied by Howard Banks his private secretary, and Secretary Daniels could not be found.

THINK NOTE MEANS WAR

(By United Press)
London, June 9—The newspapers this afternoon interpret Secretary of State Bryan's resignation as an indication that the President's rejoinder is so finely phrased that war with the United States and Germany will result.

BOMBARD TURKISH FORTS

(By United Press)
Athens, June 9th—The Anglo-French fleet has opened a heavy fire on the Turkish forts on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles.

BRYAN'S LAST APPEARANCE

(By United Press)
Washington, June 9—Secretary of State Bryan was at his desk as usual today, presumably the last time as premier of the cabinet.

GERMAN SUBMARINE SUNK

(By United Press)
London, June 9—A German submarine has been sunk by the British, six officers and twenty-one of the crew being captured.

To Sleep Well in Summer

Slight inflammation of the bronchial tubes causes a distressing cough and makes sleep impossible. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops that annoying tickling and soothes the itching, tiring, cough. Good for all coughs, colds, croup and bronchial affections. H. P. Dunn, druggist. Advl. mwf

HUBERT

Mrs. J. B. Heald arrived from Boston the latter part of the week to visit relatives here for some time. Z. B. Clarke of St. Paul spent several days at the Bohike home last week. Miss Olga Sovig left for Kintyne, N. D., Monday. Mrs. L. L. Osborne and Mrs. C. Shaw of Mankato have arrived to spend the summer on Clark lake. Oscar Hanft arrived from Marinette, Wis., Monday. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lowrie and

Take a Victrola on your camping trip

A Victrola is looked upon as a regular part of a camping outfit nowadays.

It is always sure of a rousing welcome.

Its delightful music is one of the real joys of camp life.

Whether you are going camping or not, come in and get acquainted with the Victrola. We'll gladly play any music you wish to hear.

Victrolas $15 to $250. Victors $10 to $100.

"MICHAEL'S"

NEW GRAND

Is

Closed Until

JUNE 13th

Unless Notice

IS Otherwise

Given

children came out from Brainerd Tuesday to spend the summer at their cottage.

Ingolf Dillon, Alfred Dillon, Ralph Faulkner, John Olson, Gorman Nelson, Henry Lagerquist, Roy Anderson and Percy Carbine are camping near Clark lake.

Miss Lydia Knebel came down from Pequot Monday morning.

Miss Julia Fuller returned from Gilbert Monday night.

El. W. Linnemann came out from Brainerd Friday on business.

Mrs. W. P. Bartsch and daughter Edith, came out from Brainerd Tuesday.

Mrs. H. L. Jones and son Harold, of Brainerd are spending a few days here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Webb and children spent Saturday and Sunday at their cottage on Clark lake.

Robert Maxwell returned from Walker Friday morning.

Donald Dally came down from La Porte Monday to work for his brother Mr. and Mrs. Stephen G. Hale, of Minneapolis are spending a few days at Minnewawn Lodge.

GRAND OPENING

The Majestic Pool and Billiard Parlors Open Tomorrow

EVERYBODY CORDIALLY INVITED

A new amusement enterprize for Brainerd and vicinity will be open to the general public tomorrow, Thursday, June 10th... The Majestic is located at 622 Front street, near 7th and will be conducted in a strictly gentlemanly manner where Ladies can visit with their escorts and enjoy the grand new game of pocket billiards—now the range in the largest cities—eight new tables and equipment of the very latest styles will be in use and every convenience and service to the public will be connected with this new Majestic—The management promise a most reputable place of amusement and will do all possible for the elevation and cleanliness of this great parlor entertainment — No gambling of any nature will be permitted—Only young men over the age of 18 will be accepted as patrons and in every way we assure you a nice reputable place for yourself and friends to call and spend a sociable visit—Carnations free to the Ladies from 8 to 10 p. m. Thursday evening, June 10—

The BLACK BOX

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Author of "The Moving Finger," "The Prince of Sinners," "Anna, the Adventuress," etc.

Novelized from the motion picture drama of the same name produced by the Universal Film Manufacturing Company. Illustrated with photographs from the motion picture production.

(Copyright, 1915, by Otis F. Wood.)

CHAPTER XXI.

Quest stood, frowning, upon the pavement, gazing at the obviously empty house. He looked once more at the slip of paper which Lenora had given him. There was no possibility of any mistake:

Mrs. Willet,
157 Elsmere Road,
Hampstead.

This was 157 and the house was empty. After a moment's hesitation he rang the bell at the adjoining door. A woman, who had been watching him from the front room, answered the summons at once.

"Can you tell me," he inquired, "what has become of the lady who used to live at 157—Mrs. Willet?"

"She's moved," was the uncompromising reply.

"Do you know where to?" Quest asked, eagerly.

"West Kensington—No. 17 Princess Court road. There was a young lady here yesterday afternoon inquiring for her."

Quest raised his hat. It was a relief, at any rate, to have news of Lenora.

"I am very much obliged to you, madam."

"You're welcome!" was the terse reply.

Quest gave a new address to the taxi driver and was scarcely able to restrain his impatience during the long drive. They pulled up at last before a somewhat dingy-looking house. He rang the bell, which was answered by a trim-looking little maid-servant.

"Is Mrs. Willet in?" he inquired.

A new interest seemed suddenly to have crept into Hardaway's manner.

"Let me see," he said, "if she left Clifford's hotel about two, she would have been at Hampstead about half-past two. She would waste a few minutes in making inquiries, then she probably left Hampstead for West Kensington, say, at a quarter to three. Give me at once a description of the young lady," he demanded.

Quest drew a photograph from his pocket and passed it silently over.

"Mr. Quest," he said, "it is just possible that your visit here has been an exceedingly opportune one."

"Come along with me," he continued. "We'll talk as we go."

"They entered a taxi and drove off westwards.

"Mr. Quest," he went on, "for two months we have been on the track of a man and a woman whom we strongly suspect of having decoyed half a dozen perfectly respectable young women, and shipped them out to South America."

"The white slave traffic!" Quest gasped.

"Something of the sort," Hardaway admitted. "Well, we've been closing the net around this interesting couple, and last night I had information brought to me upon which we are acting this afternoon. We've had them watched and it seems that they were sitting in a tea place about three o'clock yesterday afternoon when a young woman entered who was obviously a stranger to London. You see, the time fits in exactly, if your assistant decided to stop on her way to Kensington and get some tea. She asked the woman at the desk the best means of getting to West Kensington without taking a taxicab. Her description tallies exactly with the photograph you have shown me. The woman whom my men were watching addressed her and offered to show her the way. They left the place together. My men followed them. The house has been watched ever since and we are raiding it this afternoon. You and I will just be in time."

He stopped the cab and they got out. A man who seemed to be strolling aimlessly along reading a newspaper suddenly joined them.

"Well, Dixon?" his chief exclaimed.

The man glanced around.

"I've got three men round at the back, Mr. Hardaway," he said. "It's impossible for anyone to leave the place."

Hardaway paused to consider a moment.

"Look here," Quest suggested, "they know all of you, of course, and they'll never let you in until they're forced to. I'm a stranger. Let me go. I'll get in all right."

"All right," he assented. "We shall follow you up pretty closely, though."

Quest stepped back into the taxi and gave the driver a direction. When he emerged in front of the handsome gray stone house he seemed to have become completely transformed. There was a fatuous smile upon his lips. He crossed the pavement with difficulty, stumbling up the steps, and held on the knocker with one hand while he consulted a slip of paper. He had scarcely rung the bell before a slightly parted curtain in the front room fell together and a moment later the door was opened by a man in the livery of a butler, but with the face and physique of a prize-fighter.

"Lady of the house," Quest demanded. "Want to see the lady of the house?"

WILSON AND BRYAN DIFFER IN POLICIES

"Vigorous Attitude" Opposes "Dove of Peace."

FORMER HAS MORE SUPPORT

The Administration Greatly Increases Its Popularity by Stiff Note to Germany—However, the Personal Inclinations of the Two Men Are Similar in Most Respects.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 9.—[Special.]—Just what will happen when Secretary Bryan's "friendship" and kindred policies meet face to face with President Wilson's "vigorous attitude" and its consequences has begun to disturb friends of both men. Even the assurance that Bryan intends to stay by Wilson through thick and thin to the end of his term does not allay the fears of some of the Democratic leaders.

Bryan has persistently asserted that "American love and friendship can conquer the world," while President Wilson found the phrase about a man being "too proud to fight" unpopular; on the other hand, that a big, stiff statement to Germany was one of the most popular acts of his administration. A little later he found that an intimation that this government might intervene in Mexico to protect the people and the country from destruction was also quite popular.

Personal Inclinations Similar.

Beyond question the personal inclinations of the two men are similar. Both prefer peaceful methods. Bryan has lately been outspoken against increased war preparations. President Wilson has intimated strongly his belief in a large navy. But what has been more important, the president has found popularity in his position, which means force to make good if foreign nations offer resistance. It is gold politics, and we all know that in most cases good politics means good statesmanship. At least it means following the opinion of the people so far as possible with good results. No doubt Mr. Wilson would have much preferred to have his administration pass along without any resort to forceful language or use of the military. That would suit him as well as it would suit Bryan. But Wilson may be the shrewder politician and wiser statesman.

When Japan Rules China.

No one can tell who will take up the subject of Japan as a menace in place of Congressman Hobson, who is no longer a member of congress, but there will be no trouble about his successor having plenty of material. Quite a number of men have begun to prepare statistics showing what will happen when Japan rules China in such a way as to utilize her resources in men and material for a large military force. It is easy to prove that out of 400,000,000 of people an army and navy can be made which will control the orient from the frozen ocean to the Indian sea. And we will hear considerable about that prospective power in the next session of congress even if Hobson is not there to make the best of it.

Redfield's Ready Figures.

There was fitness in the selection of William C. Redfield for secretary of commerce. That department revels in figures and statistics, and when it comes down to figures Redfield is a natural born reveler. He'd rather dive into a bunch of statistics than go home to dinner. He likes the comparisons, deductions and possibilities which can be worked out of all kinds of statistics. It is his aim to make our commerce keep pace with the figures he makes about it.

Suez and Panama.

If Germany can destroy English ships in the waters adjacent to the Suez canal what would prevent her from doing the same to American ships at Panama? If a submarine can go from Kiel to Constantinople it could go across the Atlantic. In case of war with Germany there are quite a number of interesting contingencies to consider.

Jim Sherman's Helping Hand.

J. Van Vechten Olcott, formerly a member of congress from New York, was a delegate to the Pan-American conference and one day he began telling stories about Vice President Sherman, who served twenty years in the house.

"Jim Sherman was the most helpful man to new members I ever knew," said Olcott. "When I came to Washington I had no experience in any legislative body and was as green as any Rube who ever appeared on Broadway. Jim Sherman came to me and offered to help me in any way he could and was very useful. He was the same with all new members whether Republicans or Democrats, and that was one reason why he was so popular."

Trying to Rule Larry Off.

Friends of Jim Mann have determined to rule Larry Sherman off the presidential track in Illinois. It has been expected that Sherman might get the delegation, but Mann's friends are going to push things so vigorously that they hope to make the senator back out and leave Jim a clear field in his own state.

AIR MEN GET SCARED.

They Never Know When a Panic of Fear May Grip Them.

Professional aeroplane pilots have long since ceased to be ashamed to confess that they get scared and that a panic of fear while in the air may seize them at any time. Why this is so is the subject of an article in the London Aeroplane.

It appears that a flier with an imagination is never quite happy, especially on a long flight in calm weather when he has nothing to occupy his attention. One pilot, who is one of the finest fliers in England, has a habit which is most disconcerting to his passengers, however consoling it may be to him personally. He will fly without a waver for perhaps half an hour, then suddenly the passenger will imagine that a storm has struck them, for the machine will stand first on one wing tip and then on the other, then it will dive terrifically, and then it will almost loop the loop. After that it will calm down and fly for another half hour, when the performance will be repeated. After they have landed and the passenger has remarked on the extraordinary squalls which struck them when over certain places, the pilot will casually explain that he was merely looking round at those intervals to see whether his tail was still there and was testing the controls to see whether anything was trying to jam.

"Cold feet" may lead merely to proper caution, or it may lead to complete loss of nerve. A pilot may have cold feet of a certain machine and so fly it with due respect for its peculiarities, or he may have cold feet of flying altogether, in which case he had better give it up, for if he does not he must take to "doping," which is fatal.

"A particularly malignant disease is 'constructor's cold feet,' in which the victim, always on the ground himself, watches every machine in the air in a constant state of terror, expecting it to fall in pieces whenever it is moved by a gust, and when a machine of his own or any other make is on the ground, he is always pawing round it, finding some spot at which it may break."

The richest genius, like the most fertile soil when uncultivated, shoots up the rank weeds.

WANTS

Notices under this head will be charged for at the rate of one cent a word for the first insertion and one half cent a word for each subsequent insertion, strictly cash in advance, but no ad will be taken for less than fifteen cents.

HELP WANTED.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, 511 North Fifth street. 302tf

WANTED—Good competent girl for general housework. Must like children. Apply to Mrs. Edwin Bergh, Iron Exchange hotel. 263tf

FOR RENT.

TWO ROOMS for light housekeeping, modern. 716 1/2 Laurel. 307tf

FOR RENT—Four room flat in Lagerquist block, enquire on the premises. 254tf

FOR RENT—Furnished flats for light housekeeping in Pearce block. 293tf

FOR RENT—One store building 25x50, corner of Kindred street and Second avenue, No. 123 N. E. Good location for any business. Tel. 132-4R. Ed. Cullen. 290tf

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Horse, harness and buggy. 420 Pine St. N. E. 643

FOR SALE OR RENT—Hotel Antlers. In good condition. 280tf

FOR SALE—Team of mares, harness and wagon. Inquire C. W. Koer-48g. 643

FOR SALE—Sideboard, book case and other furniture. Inquire 324 4th street north. 61f

FOR SALE—New milch cows. Geo. Hehen town. St. Mathias. Address Route 2, Brainerd. 1444f

FOR SALE—A Jackson, 40 horsepower, 5 passenger car. Can be seen at Sherlund's garage. Price $500. 512-w1tp

7 ROOM nearly new house and three fine deep lots on South Sixth St. $2150—$1200 cash balance easy. Well built by owner. Nettleton. 543d-w1

FOR SALE—West 1/2 of northwest 1/4, section 3, township 42, range 31, Morrison county. Land is rich gently rolling. Soil is a rich sandy loam with clay subsoil. Located 6 1/2 miles east from Fort Ripley. Price $20.00 per acre. Mineral Rights reserved. One-half cash and balance on terms to suit buyer. Inquire at this office.

MISCELLANEOUS

LOST—A silver purse. Return to this office for reward. 51f

ESTRAYED—Two yearling calves while unloading from cars at Mer-444d. Finder notify J. Gersinger, Merrifield. 643p

WANTED—A loan for a client of $1000.00 at 7 per cent, on good improved city property. Jas. R. Smith, Sleeper block. 413

LOST—Tan raincoat, brown velvet collar. Between 5th and 13th Sts. on Oak or on 13th St. road coming from South Long Lake. Finder return to 618 Front St. Reward. 4tf

ADMITS MURDER IN WOODS

Albert Thompson, College Graduate Said to Have Confessed.

Marquette, Wis., June 9.—Albert Thompson, an Eastern man, college graduate, has confessed to the police at Ontonagon, Mich., that he murdered Henry Cicotte, a resident of Walsh, Marinette county, last February.

Cicotte's body was found in the woods with a bullet hole in the back of his head.

Thompson was lodged in jail. According to his confession the murder was due to a quarrel over a woman.

Only a Few Can Go

Those who do not have to consider expense are now going to health resorts to get a rid of impurities in the system that cause rheumatism, back-ache, aching joints and painful muscles. If you cannot go, yet feel you need relief from pain and misery, get Foley Kidney Pills. They restore the kidneys to activity and make you feel well and strong. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Advt. mwf

TURKS CLAIM BIG VICTORY

Assert Position of British Troops is Dangerous.

Berlin, June 9.—Among the news items given out by the Overseas News agency is the following:

"Constantinople reports give further details of the severe British defeat at Seddul Bahr. The Turks in their attack forced their enemies back and captured large stores of arms and ammunition and took prisoners. The position of the British troops is dangerous. They are without the support of the heavy guns of their ships and the men are nervous and without spirit."

"Travelers report that at Alexandria, Egypt, there are no fewer than 40,000 wounded British soldiers."

NEW RECORD IN ORE LOADING

Twelve Boats Take on Cargoes at Same Dock in Ten Hours.

Duluth, June 9.—New records for tonnage and speed in ore loading were established at the Duluth, Messabe and Northern ore docks when twelve boats were loaded with a total of 100,095 tons of iron ore in ten hours and fifteen minutes.

This record is at the rate of about 50,000,000 tons of ore a season, or more than double the total tonnage shipped in 1914.

The previous high record, also held by the Duluth, Messabe and Northern ore docks, was 85,000 tons of ore loaded into ten boats in ten hours.

QUITTING IS UNFORTUNATE

Senator Sherman Says Crisis Calls for All Available Support.

Springfield, Ill., June 9.—United States Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman said:

"It is peculiarly unfortunate that Mr. Bryan should withdraw from the president's cabinet at this juncture. The critical point that has been reached in the European and the Mexican situations necessitates the concentration of all available support at the command of President Wilson."

"The president now becomes his own secretary of state. It is a crucial moment that demands the largest confidence of a nation in its executive authority."

Acres and Bible Letters.

It has sometimes been stated that there are more acres in Yorkshire than there are letters in the Bible. A person hearing the statement for the first time is inclined to doubt it, but it is true, all the same. Authorities differ as to the exact acreage of the county, one giving it as 3,882,848 and another as 3,771,843. But the number of letters in the Bible is said to be 3,565,480, so the acres beat the letters, with something to spare. —London Notes and Queries.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Look young! Nobody can tell if you use Grandmother's simple recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

NEW GROCERY

I have opened a new grocery store at 109 Kindred street, where I will be pleased to greet all my friends and old customers. A fine line of staple and fancy groceries constantly on hand. Delivery to any part of city.

JOHN HUGHES

Phone 515-J

RADNOR THE NEW ARROW COLLAR

ADVERTISE IN THE DISPATCH

The BLACK BOX

By E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM

Author of "The Moving Finger," "The Prince of Sinners," "Anna, the Adventuress," etc.

Novelized from the motion picture drama of the same name produced by the Universal Film Manufacturing Company. Illustrated with photographs from the motion picture production.

(Copyright, 1915, by Otis F. Wood.)

CHAPTER XXI.

Quest stood, frowning, upon the pavement, gazing at the obviously empty house. He looked once more at the slip of paper which Lenora had given him. There was no possibility of any mistake:

Mrs. Willet,
157 Elmsmere Road,
Hampstead.

This was 157 and the house was empty. After a moment's hesitation he rang the bell at the adjoining door. A woman, who had been watching him from the front room, answered the summons at once.

"Can you tell me," he inquired, "what has become of the lady who used to live at 157—Mrs. Willet?"

"She's moved," was the uncompromising reply.

"Do you know where to?" Quest asked, eagerly.

"West Kensington—No. 17 Princess Court road. There was a young lady here yesterday afternoon inquiring for her."

Quest raised his hat. It was a relief, at any rate, to have news of Lenora.

"I am very much obliged to you, madam."

"You're welcome!" was the terse reply.

Quest gave a new address to the taxi driver and was scarcely able to restrain his impatience during the long drive. They pulled up at last before a somewhat dingy-looking house. He rang the bell, which was answered by a trim-looking little maid-servant.

"Is Mrs. Willet in?" he inquired.

A new interest seemed suddenly to have crept into Hardaway's manner.

"Let me see," she said, "if she left Clifford's hotel about two, she would have been at Hampstead about half-past two. She would waste a few minutes in making inquiries, then she probably left Hampstead for West Kensington, say, at a quarter to three. Give me at once a description of the young lady," he demanded.

Quest drew a photograph from his pocket and passed it silently over.

"Mr. Quest," he said, "it is just possible that your visit here has been an exceedingly opportune one."

"Come along with me," he continued. "We'll talk as we go."

They entered a taxi and drove off westward.

"Mr. Quest," he went on, "for two months we have been on the track of a man and a woman whom we strongly suspect of having decoyed half a dozen perfectly respectable young women, and shipped them out to South America."

"The white slave traffic!" Quest gasped.

"Something of the sort," Hardaway admitted. "Well, we've been closing the net around this interesting couple, and last night I had information brought to me upon which we are acting this afternoon. We've had them watched and it seems that they were sitting in a tea place about three o'clock yesterday afternoon when a young woman entered who was obviously a stranger to London. You see, the time fits in exactly, if your assistant decided to stop on her way to Kensington and get some tea. She asked the woman at the desk the best means of getting to West Kensington without taking a taxi. Her description tallies exactly with the photograph you have shown me. The woman whom my men were watching addressed her and offered to show her the way. They left the place together. My men followed them. The house has been watched ever since and we are raiding it this afternoon. You and I will just be in time."

He stopped the cab and they got out. A man who seemed to be strolling aimlessly along reading a newspaper suddenly joined them.

"Well, Dixon?" his chief exclaimed.

The man glanced around.

"I've got three men round at the back, Mr. Hardaway," he said. "It's impossible for anyone to leave the place."

Hardaway paused to consider a moment.

"Look here," Quest suggested, "they know all of you, of course, and they'll never let you in until they're forced to. I'm a stranger. Let me go. I'll get in all right."

"All right," he assented. "We shall follow you up pretty closely, though."

Quest stepped back into the taxi and gave the driver a direction. When he emerged in front of the handsome gray stone house he seemed to have become completely transformed. There was a fatuous smile upon his lips. He crossed the pavement with difficulty, stumbling upon the steps, and held on the knocker with one hand while he consulted a slip of paper. He had scarcely rung the bell before a slightly parted curtain in the front room fell together and a moment later the door was opened by a man in the livery of a butler, but with the face and physique of a prize-fighter.

"Lady of the house," Quest demanded. "Want to see the lady of the house?"

Almost immediately he was conscious of a woman standing in the hall before him.

"You had better come in," she invited. "Please do not stand in the doorway."

Quest, however, who had heard the footsteps of the others behind him, loitered there for a moment.

"You're the lady whose name is on this piece of paper?" he demanded. "This place is all right, eh?"

"I really do not know what you mean," the woman replied coldly; "but if you will come inside I will talk with you in the drawing room."

Quest, as though stumbling against the front door, had it now wide open, and in a moment the hall seemed full. The woman shrieked. The butler suddenly sprang upon the last man to enter and sent him spinning down the steps. Almost at that instant there was a scream from upstairs. Quest took a running jump and went up the stairs four at a time. The butler, who had so far defied arrest, suddenly snatched the revolver from Hardaway's hand and fired blindly in front of him, missing Quest only by an inch or two.

"Don't be a fool, Karl!" the woman called out. "The game's up. Take it quietly."

Once more the shriek rang through the house. Quest rushed to the door of the room from whence it came, tried the handle, and found it locked. He ran back a little way and charged it. From inside he could hear a turmoil of voices. White with rage and passion, he pushed and kicked madly. There was a shot from inside, a bullet came through the door within an inch of his head, then the crash of broken crockery and a man's groan. With a final effort Quest dashed the door in and staggered into the room. Lenora was standing in the far corner, the front of her dress torn and blood upon her lips. She held a revolver in her hand, and was covering a man whose head and hands were bleeding. Around him were the debris of a broken jug.

"Mr. Quest!" she screamed. "Don't go near him—I've got him covered. I'm all right."

Quest drew a long breath. The man who stood glaring at him was well dressed and still young. He was unarmed, however, and Quest secured him in a moment.

"The girl's mad!" he said sullenly. "No one wanted to do her any harm."

Hardaway and his men came trooping up the stairs. Quest relinquished his prisoner and went over to Lenora.

"I've been so frightened," she sobbed. "They got me in here—they told me that this was the street in which my aunt lived and they wouldn't let me go. The woman was horrible. And this afternoon this man came. The brute!"

Quest turned to Hardaway.

"I'll take the young lady away," he said. "You know where to find us."

Lenora had almost recovered when they reached the hotel. Walking up and down they found the professor.

"My friend!" he exclaimed—"Mr. Quest! It is the devil incarnate against whom we fight!"

"What do you mean?" Quest demanded.

The professor wrung his hands.

"I put him in our James H. prison," he declared. "Why should I think of the secret passage? No one has used it for a hundred years. He found it, learned the trick—"

"You mean," Quest cried—

"He has escaped!" the professor broke in. "Craig has escaped again! They are searching for him high and low, but he has gone!"

(Continued tomorrow)

Grand Theatre every Monday

CUMMINS EXPECTED BREAK

Says Bryan Proved Surprised Failure in Diplomatic Affairs.

Butte, Mont., June 9.—Senator A. B. Cummins of Iowa stopped several hours here en route home from the Hawaiian islands. He expressed some surprise at the resignation of Secretary Bryan, but said that the action was not wholly unexpected, as Bryan had proved the surprise failure in diplomatic affairs and in the shaping of this country's foreign policies. Senator Cummins emphatically declared his belief that there will be an extra session of congress called late in September or early in October to relieve the president of some of the responsibility confronting him on account of the European and Mexican situations.

CITROLAX

CITROLAX
CITROLAX
CITROLAX

Best thing for constipation, sour stomach, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Stops a sick headache almost at once. Gives a most thorough and satisfactory flushing—no pain, no nausea. Keeps your system cleansed, sweet and wholesome. Ask for CITROLAX. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv.

WILSON AND BRYAN DIFFER IN POLICIES

"Vigorous Attitude" Opposes "Dove of Peace."

FORMER HAS MORE SUPPORT

The Administration Greatly Increases Its Popularity by Stiff Tone to Germany—However, the Personal Inclinations of the Two Men Are Similar in Most Respects.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 9.—[Special.]—Just what will happen when Secretary Bryan's "friendship" and kindred policies meet face to face with President Wilson's "vigorous attitude" and its consequences has begun to disturb friends of both men. Even the assurance that Bryan intends to stay by Wilson through thick and thin to the end of his term does not allay the fears of some of the Democratic leaders.

Bryan has persistently asserted that "American love and friendship can conquer the world," while President Wilson found the phrase about a man being "too proud to fight" unpopular; on the other hand, that a big, stiff statement to Germany was one of the most popular acts of his administration. A little later he found that an intimation that this government might intervene in Mexico to protect the people and the country from destruction was also quite popular.

Personal Inclinations Similar.

Beyond question the personal inclinations of the two men are similar. Both prefer peaceful methods. Bryan has lately been outspoken against increased war preparations. President Wilson has intimated strongly his belief in a large navy. But what has been more important, the president has found popularity in his position, which means force to make good if foreign nations offer resistance. It is good politics, and we all know that in most cases good politics means good statesmanship. At least it means following the opinion of the people so far as possible with good results. No doubt Mr. Wilson would have much preferred to have his administration pass along without any resort to forceful language or use of the military. That would suit him as well as it would suit Bryan. But Wilson may be the shrewder politician and wiser statesman.

When Japan Rules China.

No one can tell who will take up the subject of Japan as a menace in place of Congressman Hobson, who is no longer a member of congress, but there will be no trouble about his successor having plenty of material. Quite a number of men have begun to prepare statistics showing what will happen when Japan rules China in such a way as to utilize her resources in men and material for a large military force. It is easy to prove that out of 400,000,000 of people an army and navy can be made which will control the orient from the frozen ocean to the Indian sea. And we will hear considerable about that prospective power in the next session of congress even if Hobson is not there to make the best of it.

Redfield's Ready Figures.

There was fitness in the selection of William C. Redfield for secretary of commerce. That department revels in figures and statistics, and when it comes down to figures Redfield is a natural born reveler. He'd rather dive into a bunch of statistics than go home to dinner. He likes the comparisons, deductions and possibilities which can be worked out of all kinds of statistics. It is his aim to make our commerce keep pace with the figures he makes about it.

Suez and Panama.

If Germany can destroy English ships in the waters adjacent to the Suez canal what would prevent her from doing the same to American ships at Panama? If a submarine can go from Kiel to Constantinople it could go across the Atlantic. In case of war with Germany there are quite a number of interesting contingencies to consider.

Jim Sherman's Helping Hand.

J. Van Vechten Olcott, formerly a member of congress from New York, was a delegate to the Pan-American conference and one day he began telling stories about Vice President Sherman, who served twenty years in the house.

"Jim Sherman was the most helpful man to new members I ever knew," said Olcott. "When I came to Washington I had no experience in any legislative body and was as green as any Rube who ever appeared on Broadway. Jim Sherman came to me and offered to help me in any way he could and was very useful. He was the same with all new members whether Republicans or Democrats, and that was one reason why he was so popular."

Trying to Rule Larry Off.

Friends of Jim Mann have determined to rule Larry Sherman off the presidential track in Illinois. It has been expected that Sherman might get the delegation, but Mann's friends are going to push things so vigorously that they hope to make the senator back out and leave Jim a clear field in his own state.

AIR MEN GET SCARED.

They Never Know When a Panic of Fear May Grip Them.

Professional aeroplane pilots have long since ceased to be ashamed to confess that they get scared and that a panic of fear while in the air may seize them at any time. Why this is so is the subject of an article in the London Aeroplane.

It appears that a flier with an imagination is never quite happy, especially on a long flight in calm weather when he has nothing to occupy his attention. One pilot, who is one of the finest fliers in England, has a habit which is most disconcerting to his passengers, however consoling it may be to him personally. He will fly without a waver for perhaps half an hour, then suddenly the passenger will imagine that a storm has struck them, for the machine will stand first on one wing tip and then on the other, then it will dive terrifically, and then it will almost loop the loop. After that it will calm down and fly for another half hour, when the performance will be repeated. After they have landed and the passenger has remarked on the extraordinary squalls which struck them when over certain places, the pilot will casually explain that he was merely looking round at those intervals to see whether his tail was still there and was testing the controls to see whether anything was trying to jam.

"Cold feet" may lead merely to proper caution, or it may lead to complete loss of nerve. A pilot may have cold feet of a certain machine and so fly it with due respect for its peculiarities, or he may have cold feet of flying altogether, in which case he had better give it up, for if he does not he must take to "doping," which is fatal.

"A particularly malignant disease is 'constructor's cold feet,' in which the victim, always on the ground himself, watches every machine in the air in a constant state of terror, expecting it to fall in pieces whenever it is moved by a gust, and when a machine of his own or any other make is on the ground, he is always pawing round it, finding some spot at which it may break."

The richest genius, like the most fertile soil when uncultivated, shoots up into the rankiest weeds.

RESULTS ON THE DIAMOND

American Association.

Columbus 5, St. Paul 4.

Minneapolis 9, Louisville 3.

Cleveland 5, Milwaukee 4.

Indianapolis 12, Kansas City 2.

National League.

Brooklyn 4, Pittsburgh 3.

Boston 4, Cincinnati 3.

New York 9, Chicago 3.

Philadelphia 5, St. Louis 4.

American League.

New York 4, Detroit 1.

Chicago 4, Boston 3.

Washington 3, Cleveland 2.

Philadelphia 5, St. Louis 2.

Federal League.

Brooklyn 5, Baltimore 3.

Kansas City 5, St. Louis 1.

Northern League.

Winnipeg 2, St. Boniface 1.

GRAIN AND PROVISION PRICES

Duluth Wheat and Flax.

Duluth, June 8.—Wheat—On track and to arrive, No. 1 hard, $1.29½; No. 1 Northern, $1.28½; No. 2 Northern, $1.23½@1.24½. Flax—On track and to arrive, $1.85½.

St. Paul Grain.

St. Paul, June 8.—Wheat—No. 1 Northern, $1.28½@1.25½; No. 2 Northern, $1.25@1.33; No. 2 Montana hard, $1.21@1.23; corn, 65¢@66¢; oats, 42¢@45¢; barley, 64¢@69¢; rye, $1.11@1.12; flax, $1.85½.

Minneapolis Grain.

Minneapolis, June 8.—Wheat—July, $1.27½; Sept., $1.07½; Dec., $1.08½. Cash close on track: No. 1 hard, $1.36½; No. 1 Northern, $1.28½@1.36; No. 2 Northern, $1.25@1.35; No. 3 Northern, $1.21@1.30.

Chicago Live Stock.

Chicago, June 8.—Cattle—Steers, $6.75@9.50; cows and heifers, $3.20@8.75; calves, $7.50@10.25. Hogs—Light, $7.45@7.75; mixed, $7.35@7.72½; heavy, $7.05@7.65; rough, $7.05@7.20; pigs, $6.00@7.45. Sheep—Native, $6.40@7.20.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, June 8.—Wheat—July, $1.11½; Sept., $1.08½. Corn—July, 70½¢; Sept., 71½¢. Oats—July, 44½¢; Sept., 40½¢. Pork—July, $17.80; Sept., $18.20. Butter—Creameries, 27½¢. Eggs—16@17½¢. Poultry—Springs, 18@25¢; fowls, 13@13½¢.

South St. Paul Live Stock.

South St. Paul, June 8.—Cattle—Receipts, 2,000; steers, $5.00@8.75; cows and heifers, $4.50@7.50; calves, $3.75@9.00; stockers and feeders, $4.50@7.50. Hogs—Receipts, 6,000; range, $7.10@7.35. Sheep—Receipts, 100; lambs, $4.00@9.00; wethers, $6.00@6.00; ewes, $3.00@5.50.

St. Paul Hay.

St. Paul, June 8.—Hay—Choice timothy, $17.00; No. 1 timothy, $15.50@16.25; No. 1 clover mixed, $12.50@13.25; No. 1 mixed, different grasses, $12.50@13.25; No. 1 mixed, timothy and wild, $13.00@13.75; choice upland, $16.75@17.50; No. 1 upland, $15.00@16.00; No. 1 midland, $9.00@9.75; No. 1 alfalfa, $15.00@15.75.

WANTS

Notices under this head will be charged for at the rate of one cent a word for the first insertion and one half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion, strictly cash in advance. No ad will be taken for less than fifteen cents.

HELP WANTED.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, 511 North Fifth street. 302tf

WANTED—Good competent girl for general housework. Must like children. Apply to Mrs. Edwin Bergh, Iron Exchange hotel. 203tf

FOR RENT.

TWO ROOMS for light housekeeping, modern. 716½ Laurel. 307tf

FOR RENT—Four room flat in Lagerquist block, enquire on the premises. 254tf

FOR RENT—Furnished flats for light housekeeping in Pearce block. 293tf

FOR RENT—One store building 25x50, corner of Kindred street and Second avenue, No. 123 N. E. Good location for any business. Tel. 133-rt. Ed. Cullen. 290tf

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Horse, harness and buggy. 420 Pine St. N. E. 613

FOR SALE OR RENT—Hotel Antlers. In good condition. 280tf

FOR SALE—Team of mares, harness and wagon. Inquire C. W. Koering. 613

FOR SALE—Side-board, book case and other furniture. Inquire 324 4th street north. 61f

FOR SALE—New milch cows. Geo. Hellen, town St. Mathias. Address Route 2, Brainerd. 144tf

FOR SALE—A Jackson, 40 horsepower, 5 passenger car. Can be seen at Sherlund's garage. Price $500. 542-w1p

7 ROOM nearly new house and three fine deep lots on South Sixth St. $2150—$1200 cash balance easy. Well built by owner. Nettleton. 533-w1

FOR SALE—West ½ of northwest ¼, section 3, township 42, range 31, Morrison county. Land is gently rolling. Soil is a rich sandy loam with clay subsoil. Located 6½ miles east from Fort Ripley. Price $20.00 per acre. Mineral Rights reserved. One-half cash and balance on terms to suit buyer. Inquire at this office.

MISCELLANEOUS

LOST—A silver purse. Return to this office for reward. 51f

ESTRAYED—Two yearling calves while unloading from cars at Merrifield. Finder notify J. Gersinger, Merrifield. 613p

WANTED—A loan for a client of $1000.00 at 7 per cent, on good improved city property. Jas. R. Smith, Sleeper block. 413

LOST—Tan raincoat, brown velvet collar. Between 5th and 13th Sts. on Oak or on 13th St. road coming from South Long Lake. Finder return to 618 Front St. Reward. 41f

ADmits MURDER IN WOODS

Albert Thompson, College Graduate Said to Have Confessed.

Marquette, Wis., June 9.—Albert Thompson, an Eastern man, college graduate, has confessed to the police at Ontonagon, Mich., that he murdered Henry Clotte, a resident of Walsh Marquette county, last February.

Clotte's body was found in the woods with a bullet hole in the back of his head.

Thompson was lodged in jail. According to his confession the murder was due to a quarrel over a woman.

Only a Few Can Go

Those who do not have to consider expense are now going to health resorts to get rid of impurities in the system that cause rheumatism, backache, aching joints and painful muscles. If you cannot go, yet feel you need relief from pain and misery, get Foley Kidney Pills. They restore the kidneys to activity and make you feel well and strong. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv.

TOILET GOODS. Try us on toilet goods. We have the most complete stock of high-grade brushes, perfumes, toilet waters, creams, powders, etc.

SICK-ROOM SUPPLIES. Try us when you need any time-tested contrivance for affording comfort to the sick and aid to attendants. Try us. We'll stand the test.

PRESCRIPTIONS. Try us on prescriptions. We have a complete stock of prescription drugs and can fill your prescription just as your doctor directs.

TOILET GOODS. Try us on toilet goods. We have the most complete stock of high-grade brushes, perfumes, toilet waters, creams, powders, etc.

SICK-ROOM SUPPLIES. Try us when you need any time-tested contrivance for affording comfort to the sick and aid to attendants. Try us. We'll stand the test.

PRESCRIPTIONS. Try us on prescriptions. We have a complete stock of prescription drugs and can fill your prescription just as your doctor directs.

TOILET GOODS. Try us on toilet goods. We have the most complete stock of high-grade brushes, perfumes, toilet waters, creams, powders, etc.

SICK-ROOM SUPPLIES. Try us when you need any time-tested contrivance for affording comfort to the sick and aid to attendants. Try us. We'll stand the test.

PRESCRIPTIONS. Try us on prescriptions. We have a complete stock of prescription drugs and can fill your prescription just as your doctor directs.

TOILET GOODS. Try us on toilet goods. We have the most complete stock of high-grade brushes, perfumes, toilet waters, creams, powders, etc.

SICK-ROOM SUPPLIES. Try us when you need any time-tested contrivance for affording comfort to the sick and aid to attendants. Try us. We'll stand the test.

PRESCRIPTIONS. Try us on prescriptions. We have a complete stock of prescription drugs and can fill your prescription just as your doctor directs.

TOILET GOODS. Try us on toilet goods. We have the most complete stock of high-grade brushes, perfumes, toilet waters, creams, powders, etc.

SICK-ROOM SUPPLIES. Try us when you need any time-tested contrivance for affording comfort to the sick and aid to attendants. Try us. We'll stand the test.

PRESCRIPTIONS. Try us on prescriptions. We have a complete stock of prescription drugs and